The DIMMER VIEW

by MAX GOODWIN

It was a gratifying week last week for those of us who have a high interest in school matters. The district's newest high school, El Granito, to be built in El Cajon, was bid in at $676,936 less than the state formula. The state formula is accepted as a good estimate of building costs, generally. A school in the Bay Area recently missed the state formula rate by only $400.

The El Granito High School will be built for $10 a square foot by I. C. Curry, Inc., on a bid of $1,656,660. The state said the cost according to its formula should be $2,333,596.

As a comparison, Helix High School cost $17.50 a foot. Mt. Miguel cost $10.70. The difference between the state formula and bid would build two elementary school buildings!

In face of greatly increased labor and material costs it seems almost miraculous that the new school will be built at a record low cost.

Yet, there has been no miracle. What happened is that modern day architectural principles have been accepted by the Grossmont high school district executive staff and board of trustees. This was done in concert with an architect who had a modern-day architectural mission to offer. The architect is Herluff Brydegaard, a naturalized Dane, who calls many of the costly gewgaws often designed into our high schools "foolish and wasteful."

Brydegaard is the advocate of back-to-back schoolroom construction. Such design allows single, straight-line utilities installation instead of the costly grid-type. It eliminates expensive inside corridors, eliminates costly natural lighting designs, and cuts down maintenance costs.

When Brydegaard designed his first high school in this district (Mt. Miguel), members of various newspapers in east county interviewed him separately. It didn't seem to make good sense that any architect would be working against his own financial interests by cost-cutting since his fees are a percentage of the construction bid. Each reporter, I believe, became convinced that the architect's goal was saving money for district tax payers.

He proved beyond reasonable doubt that the district could have more functional buildings and save money in getting them. Yet, last year, the high school board met to consider re-hiring a firm of architects with a district record of designs costing 50% more than those being built now. The press turned out in force to hear what motivation might cause the trustees to revert to higher cost designs. After a heated discussion the board sensibly rejected a change, but one of the trustees followed this reporter outside and charged that the press' presence at the meeting, in force, had an effect of "browbeating" the board. This, of course, was not true.

What is true is that a tremendous amount of work and study went into getting the costs down. Harold Hughes, assistand superintendent of the Grossmont district, told me once of the great number of hours he spent with the architects in developing designs containing all the aesthetic qualities without sacrificing educational values.

Lewis Smith, district superintendent, also worked long hours with the architect to provide good schools with low maintenance costs. He says there is nothing omitted in meeting educational requirements in the three buildings Brydegaard has designed. The other schools are Lakeside and Mt. Miguel.

As a footnote to the fortunate circumstances by which district high schools are built reasonably, Brydegaard's reputation has brought him offers from other districts. The latest is from a district near San Francisco. Executives there say the State Division of Finance referred them to Brydegaard when they needed to lop 25% off their construction costs.

Brydegaard says all that need be sacrificed in reducing school

6 Elderly Patients Rescued from Fire

Six elderly patients at Cresta Loma Rest Home at 7922 Palm Ave., Lemon Grove, were rescued this week when a fire threatened the sanatorium.

The fire was quelled only minutes after it started through "a little luck and a lot of advanced planning."

Firemen were alerted by an automatic alarm system which rang in the fire station when the temperature in a bathroom at the rest home rose to 135 degrees. One fire company was on the scene almost instantly. A second company of "on call" men followed in a few minutes.

Ony six weeks before, firemen had "fought a fire on paper at the rest home" and knew exactly how to gain access to the building which was in flames. Lemon Grove firemen make drawings of all business buildings and rest homes and plan just how to fight a fire in each.

Fire Chief Harold L. Hensley said that without the advance planning, firemen would not have been able to stop the fire before it caused "extensive damage."

As it was, firemen confined the blaze to a bathroom (in which the fire started from a cigaret thrown into a wastebasket) and a service porch.

Nurses helped evacuate the three elderly men and three elderly women whose quarters were on opposite sides of the one building.

Water Taste Funny? District Officials Say: Be Patient

If the water at your house tastes funny next week, just be patient. It'll be back to normal in a few more days.

Helix Irrigation District officials said that construction work on an aqueduct has made it necessary for the district to pipe water in from El Capitan Reservoir — where the water level is low and the water "may have a noticeable taste or odor."

Water officials said, however, that the water will be "perfectly safe and pure from a health standpoint."

John R. Gregory

Masons to Install New Master in Public Ceremoney

John R. Gregory will be installed as worshipful master of Lemon Grove Lodge No. 736, F&AM at 8 p.m., Saturday, December 26. The ceremony will be held in the La Mesa Masonic Temple at Date and Orange avenues.

Other officers for 1960 who will be installed are Robert F. Housh, senior warden; Chester T. Hobbs, junior warden; Adam D. Shawkey, treasurer; Wm. E. Rife, P. M., Secretary; Otis F. Icenogle, chaplain; LeRoy H. Neinaber, senior deacon; Marland R. Long, junior deacon; Lloyd V. Somerville, marshal; Archie Hutchings, senior steward; Victor D. Riska, junior steward; George J. Bell, tiler.

Francis L. Patterson, outgoing master, will be the installing officer and Lionel A. Thorogood, past master, will serve as master of ceremonies.

A reception will follow the installation of officers in the banquet room of the Temple.

The ceremony is open to the public.

Miss Schwencke

Teacher Pleases Height-Conscious School Pupils

When Miss Marlene Schwencke, a teacher, announced last week that she is engaged to Donald H. Leseney, of San Diego, her Spring Valley Junior High School pupils asked one question:

"How tall is he?

Miss Schwencke grinned and admitted that her fiance is "around six feet tall."

And the kids sighed with relief.

"Those kids had been worried about me," Miss Schwencke said. "They were always geting me dates with telephone linemen and salesmen and anybody else who was six feet tall. It was beginning to be embarassing."

Miss Schwencke is five feet ten and a half inches tall.

Inter-District Agreements To Aid Recreation District

'Responsibility' Held Key by Club Speaker

"There is no substitute for governmental bodies for organizing the resources of a community, and one of the major community needs can be filled by forming a recreation district," Attorney V. J. Dorman, counsel for the Lemon Grove Coordinating Council and candidate for the recreation district, told the Lemon Grove Men's Club Friday. An election for forming a recreation district will be held here December 22.

Dorman said a recognized body, such as the commission of a recreation district, would have no difficulty in making full use of facilities of other districts within the proposed district.

An example of facility utilization would be the district's ability to work out an after school recreation program at elementary and high schools and use their property. Private groups cannot do this because they do not have the governmental responsibility to negotiate, nor to assume the liabilities which go with performing these functions.

Such a commission could negotiate with any local district, such as the irrigation district, for use of lands now held by it.

Dorman pictured the district as an area with $25,000 a year income based on the suggested 10 cents ad valorum tax. The district's total assessed valuation will be $25 millions, he said.

He said a recreation district formed under the Community Services Act is in no way a "subterfuge for incorporation and there is no way a district such as this can be converted into a township or city."

The district would have no power to adopt general ordinances, could not control zoning nor could it police, he said. It could be used only for the purpose for which it was formed and its sole source of income would be the ad valorum tax.

He said the Community Services Act provides for the county board of supervisors to pay for the cost of the election. The determination for forming the district arose from "sincere citizens who saw a vital need for recreation as a buffer to juvenile delinquency", he said. No "outsider" has had any part in bringing about the election, he said.

The program this week will be provided by Frederick Whitney, owner of the Frederick C. Whitney Associates, a San Diego firm of public and community relations specialists. His subject will be "Communication — Today's Desperate Need."

The Men's Club meets every Friday at noon at Michael's Cafe in Lemon Grove.

Xmas Lighting Contest Set For Next Week

The Lemon Grove Junior Chamber of Commerce Home Christmas Lighting Contest will be judged December 17, according to Jim Boyd, president of the J.C. group.

Three plaques will be given for the best decorations, Boyd said. Contestants may enter the competition by filling in a coupon available at Boyd's office at 7223 Broadway, Lemon Grove.

Additional information may be obtained from him by telephone at HO 9-0818.

Winner Doug Newcomb and John Owens, school steward.

Mount Miguel Wins Economy-Safety Run

Douglas Newcomb, 17, 1522 Larwood Rd., Lemon Grove, Saturday won top individual honors in the Safety-Economy Run for students from El Cajon, El Capitan, Grossmont, Helix and Mount Miguel high schools with a score of 48.95 ton-miles per gallon of gasoline, reflecting a high degree of driving skill.

The Mount Miguel high school student piloted his 1959 Chevrolet Biscayne over the 109-mile course through San Diego County at an actual miles per gallon average of 23.19, obeying all traffic regulations and safe-driving rules. A total of 60 students from the Grossmont Union High School District were entered in the safety competition.

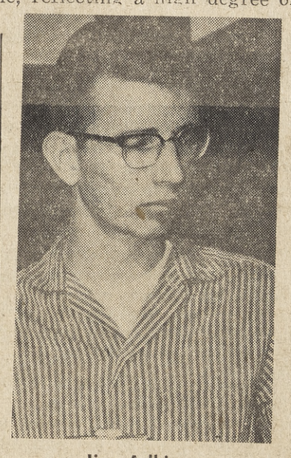
A team of 16 Mount Miguel high school drivers captured the sweepstakes trophy with 39.76 ton-miles per gallon against other teams scores of 38.73 ton-miles for El Cajon, 37.12 ton-miles for Helix, 36.51 ton-miles for Grossmont and 34.90 ton-miles for El Capitan.

Among the total of 15 Mobil Safe-Driving Award winners from all five schools, other first-place trophies at individual schools went to Nick Hallinan, El Cajon; John Willis, Helix; James Adams, El Capitan; and Gerald Ring, Grossmont. Hallinan achieved 44.04 ton-miles per gallon in a 1958 Plymouth; Wills, 4605 in a 1954 Cadilac; Adams, 41.65 in a 1960 Dodge, and Ring, 43.36 in a 1959 Studebaker.

Scores are based on the actual miles-per-gallon averages over the course, amended by penalties of one-tenth of a gallon of gasoline for each infraction of a traffic or safety regulation. The figure arrived at in this way is multiplied by the weight of the car in tons to compute the final "ton-mile" score.

Helix High School, first place, Wills; second, and top actual miles per gallon, Carl Rosso, 1953 Chevrolet, 44.26 ton-miles and 21.3 actual mpg.

Mount Miguel High School,



Jim Adkinson

first place and winner of the best actual miles per-gallon award with a 23.1 average was Newcomb. Second in the ton-miles competition for the school was James Adkinson, 1956 Mercury with 43.68 ton-miles.

Best actual miles for Grossmont High School and all cars in the run was set by the oldest car entered, a 1930 Model A Ford, driven by Carl Adams. The four-cylinder sedan averaged 25.9 mpg. A special award for "tough luck" went to Gordon Rachac of Grossmont High, who went off course and was disqualified for not completing the Run in the maximum time allowed.

The Safety-Economy Run, supplementing high school driver training instruction, was sponsored by the El Cajon Junior Chamber of Commerce. Organizational

Damage More Than $1,500

Windows Shot Out Of Cars, Stores By Slingshots

Vandals armed with steel pellet-shooting slingshots broke hundreds of dollars worth of windows in downtown Lemon Grove over the weekend.

Sheriff's Sgt. Robert Ryan and Detective Don Bryan listed the damage:

A small window (value "about $3") was broken in the office of Helix Associates, property management firm in the Parkade between Golden Avenue and Broadway;

Two large plate glass windows at the United States National Bank (value $500);

Two large plate glass windows at Marsi's women's store adjacent to the bank (value $500);

One large plate glass window in the office of All-State Insurnce Co. across the street in the First National Bank building (value $150);

Three automobile windshields at Lukens Pontiac sales lot on Broadway (value $150);

Windshields and/or rear windows in five cars at Streit Chevrolet sales lot on Broadway (value $250).

William Paul, manager of the United States National Bank here, said that other branches of the bank also had windows broken. Sgt. Ryan said that five windows were shot out of the bank's branch at 32nd and El Cajon Blvd.

Ryan said that pellets recovered at the scenes of some the vandalism were large steel balls of the type that are sold with sling shots in toy or sporting goods stores.

The pellets are considerably larger than the ordinary BBs, he said.

One group of juveniles seen near Streit Chevrolet was located by Deputy Bryan but were cleared of any complicity in the vandalism, Sgt. Ryan said.

There has been an occasional report over the past few months of windows being broken by BB guns, Ryan said, but this is the most serious "outbreak" since a rash of similar incidents in the Mt. Helix area a year ago.

At that time, juveniles drove down the streets, shooting out windows in cars and homes with air guns. They were apprehended and paroled in the custody of their parents, who were required to pay for the damage.

Hit-Run Driver Turned Over to Juvenile Officers

A 17-year-old San Diego youth, already on probation after conviction of car theft, has been turned over to juvenile authorities following his arrest after a fracas two weeks ago at the Ace Drive In Theater in Lemon Grove, according to a deputy sheriff.

Sheriff's Sgt. Robert Ryan said that Raymond Briley, 17, of 604 West Pennsylvania, San Diego, was the youth whose car almost ran over a security patrolman at the theater, knocked down two speaker posts, sideswiped two cars and sped out of the theater.

The patrolman, J. A. Isaacs of La Mesa, fired at the fleeing car, Sgt. Ryan said. He added that when he questioned Briley he found a fresh bullet hole in the glass of a rear side window of Briley's car.

Isaacs, patrolman for Aztec Securities Patrol Service, under contract to the theater, told police that several youths were in the car. He said that they were sounding the car's horn and that he approached to tell them to ston.

Then it was, he said, that the car started up, attempted to run over him, knocked down the posts, sideswiped the two cars and sped out of the theater.

Police traced the car through its license number and registration.

construction costs is superfluities. (He once showed us a local high school construction detail involving ceiling wells and skylights at approximately $9,000 each. Brydegaard's first Grossmont District school was required by state code to provide the same amount of natural light. He simply ordered larger wall windows with light louvres at $85 each.)

Whether Brydegaard or some other competent architect does the design job for our school district, we think it is interesting to note that costs can be kept within reasonable limits by good thinking and good design. As further proof, no one yet has complained that the new, lower cost buildings in the Grossmont district are inadequate.

Governor Edmund "Pat" Brown is not presently listed as an entrant on the official race chart in the 1960 Presidential "Run for the Roses."

He quotes himself as saying so in the gubernatorial Progress Report number 39 issued to the press a few days ago.

His exact words were quoted from his Oklahoma City speech and he said that he said "I want to set the record straight at the outset and make it clear I am not (a presidential candidate) — at least not now."

In the same speech he permitted himself the Democratic privilege of lambasting the Republican administration for the Russian surge to world power. He blamed eight years of Republican rule for the "central shocking fact of 1960 — the fact that America is losing ground to the Soviets economically, scientifically, educationally, militarily and in many other ways."

He charged that "the Republicans have been passing out to the country a Madison Avenue brand of political pablum and sugar coated pills at a time when it needs to face unpleasant facts and map bold programs for stepping up national growth."

The governor, we are sure, is not so short of memory that he cannot recall the warm embrace given the Soviets by President Roosevelt when Nazi Germany was falling.

Nor can he forget the top conferences with the Soviet espoused by President Truman in following the course set by his predecessor.

It has been Eisenhower only who has attempted to stem the Soviet tide of world dominance and in so doing he faced battles with some of the Democratic Congressional members.

Eisenhower has avoided getting us enmeshed in wars; has brought us the greatest prosperity in U.S. history, and reduced government controls on our day-by-day life.

Governor Brown, in our opinion, will announce his candidacy for president soon after the first of the year if we read the signs properly. If he is elected he will undoubtedly make a good chief executive. But we'd rather see him run on his record as a capable organizer and administrator than as a carping critic of eight years of G.O.P. peace and prosperity.

Mr. William Looney who runs the Chevron service station at Broadway and Buena Vista sends us a gentle reminder concerning auto four headlight arrangement which we editorially condemned to extinction an issue ago.

The San Diego Rapid Transit has taken delivery on the first of 30 new buses to be used in the San Diego area but none will see service in the Spring Valley-Lemon Grove bus riding area in the near future.

Neither was there any indication that the hour-and-longer bus schedule the System maintains for area residents, would be improved. Three years ago local residents asked for a stepped up bus service but the transit people decided in the negative which they did with statistics showing that the Spring Valley-Lemon Grove line (which also serves La Mesa) had an alarmingly low passenger count per mile in this area.

The transportation business, we came to understand, was based on how many people get on or off a vehicle with the vehicle moving to suit the owners. Our former belief was that the vehicles moved to accomodate passengers and that the better was the service rendered, the better grew business. The latter is apparently wrong by today's measurements because the transit firm remained stolid in the position that this community was getting all the bus service it (the community) could stand.

On the tail of the announcement of the 30 new, advanced-style buses being acquired, comes a warm invitation from San Diego Transit System president Mr. Jesse L. Haugh, who asks us to join him in a ride on one of his new buses next week after which the transit system will wine and dine us at the new Stardust Hotel. During this time we presumably will be told of the service, convenience and comfort the transit system is providing in Lemon Grove, Spring Valley and elsewhere in the county.

Mr. Haugh could do better than this . . . and cement his public relations a little to boot if he'd pass up the entertainment for the press in this area and spend what he saves by scheduling a few more bus trips for this area.

Future 'Bright' For Chamber Says Parker

A bright future is in store for next year's Chamber of Commerce, according to retiring president Bill Parker.

He said that the projects now in the works would assure the Lemon Grove group a good financial cushion to start next year.

Parker said this would be part of his report at the chamber's anual election meeting scheduled for this week on Thursday at El Morocco Club.

"Interest is real high in chamber activities right now," he said. "Over 50% of the ballots sent to members were returned the first three days."

He said he felt "real optimistic" regarding the chamber's current money-raising event in which a color television set and 20 turkeys will be awarded to contest winners.

He suggested that every chamber member acquire a book of ten coupons then "get out and distribute them." The awards in this contest will be made next week on Friday.

This week seven board members will be elected from fourteen candidates. A president and vice president will be chosen from among the board members.

School Bid Is $677,00 Under State Estimate

I. C. Curry, Inc., was low bidder on the Grossmont High School District's next school. The bid was $1,656,600 for the construction of El Granito High School at 4th and Madison avenues in El Cajon. Herluff Brydegaard is the architect.

The state formula which is used to establish average construction costs called for an expenditure of $2,333,596. The bid was lower than the formula by $676,936.

El Granito will have 35 general classrooms, four special science rooms, three arts and crafts rooms, two homemaking rooms, four shops, two music rooms, an administration building, a library, a gymnasium and shower and locker facilities. Gross cost per square foot is $12.48; net cost per square foot is $10.

Six bids were submitted and opened December 4 in the board room on the Grossmont campus. Firms submitting bids include C, K, F-M, Cotton Construction, O. L. Carpenter, I, C. Curry, R. J. Daum Construction Co., and Riha Construction.

O. L. Carpenter has built Helix High, El Cajon Valley High, Mt. Miguel, and El Capitan. Riha Construction is building a new library-classroom building on the Grossmont campus at the present time.

assistance was furnished by the Automobile Club of Southern California and the General Petroleum Corporation (Mobil). The El Cajon Police Department and the California Highway Patrol also cooperated in staging the event.

Leonard Berdan, of the Jaycees, was Chief Steward for the Run. School Stewards were Al Cox, Helix; E. MacRostic, Grossmont; Jack Kepp, El Cajon; John Owen, Mt. Miguel; and Gilbert Salazar, El Capitan.

First car was flagged off sortly after 8 a.m. by the official starter, Joseph O'Connor, El Cajon police chief. Other cars followed at one minute intervals. City Manager Robert Applegate served as official timer.

Among the dignitaries presenting trophies to the winners follow the completion of the run was John Gibson, distributor of Mobil Products in El Cajon.

International Club Offers Program At High School

The International Club of Mt. Miguel High School will present to the community an international program in the cafeteria at Mount Miguel on December 17 at 7:30 p.m.

According to Edward Villarreal, Mount Miguel Spanish teacher and advisor of the International Club, the purpose of the program is to "inform the community about the American Field Service program at Mount Miguel, and about Joyce Martin's travels in Germany the past summer under the AFS summer exchange program."

Miss Martin, a Mount Miguel senior, will speak about her trip to Germany, illustrating her remarks with colored slides of East and West Germany.

Another feature of the program will be a talk by Brigette Lao, American Field Service exchange student from Copenhagen, Denmark, who attends The Bishop's School in La Jolla. She will tell of her experiences in the United States.

Sharon Patrick, student at Point Loma High School, will speak about her AFS-sponsored trip to Germany last summer, which covered a different part of the country from that which Joyce visited.

Nancy McCaslin, member of the International Club, will explain the American Field Service internationa program of exchange.

The community is invited to this program which is presented free of charge. However, contributions will be accepted to help send two Mount Miguel students abroad next year and to broaden the AFS program at Mount Miguel.

NO MEETING

Due to the Christmas holidays there will be no December meeting of the El Cajon Farm Bureau Center, says chairman Maurice Nixon.

Taxpayers' Group Plans Election

An election of officers for 1960 will be held Monday night by the Lemon Grove Taxpayers Association. The meeting will be held at the Lemon Grove Junior High School Auditorium at 7 p. m.

Speaker for the meeting will be Mark Foote, a member of the Lemon Grove Fire Department, who will discuss the cost and operation of the facility.

CHOIR GROUP TO SING AT SALVATION ARMY 'KETTLE' IN GROVE

Once Over Lightly

by Don Wilson

When my young son, now aged 10 months, grows to manhood I'll bet that he has to be sitting in the bleachers at a circus in order to feel like eating.

You should see what goes on at our house when it's Ronnie-feeding time.

First, I play horse with him for a few minutes to get him into a gay mood. We bounce through the house, pausing to look at pictures and lights. If the record player, radio or TV has some music going, it helps. Ronnie likes to dance to gay music.

When he is in the proper, happy mood, we gallop into the kitchen to his high chair.

Paula is waiting for him, the food warmed to just exactly the right temperature.

She clutches a baby spoon in one hand and a rattle in the other.

"Yeeeeehaah!" she shouts, shaking the rattle and shoving the food-filled spoon toward Ronnie when his mouth pops open in amazement.

"Oh, boy! Gooood!" I say heartily as Ronnie turns to look at me quizzically.

He grins and Paula pops another spoonful of food into his mouth.

On the next attempt, the shout and rattle fail. Paula abandons the rattle in favor of a bright red plastic pie crust cutter. She waves it above her head, peering under her arm to catch Ronnie in the critical mouth-open moment—and pops another spoonful of food into his mouth.

A couple of spoonfuls later, Ronnie is leaning over the arm of the high chair, inspecting my shoes. No amount of shouting will induce him to raise his head.

Katy comes in with her nine-year-old exuberance and does a rock and roll dance to her own singing, using the door of the refrigerator as a partner.

Ronnie laughs—and gets another bite of food.

Paula tries again, just as Ronnie turns his head to look at me, and the spoonful of food lands on Ronnie's left eyebrow. Before Paula can wipe it off, Ronnie smears the food into his eye and his ear.

I fetch a clown toy which has a flexible sort of stem on it, attached to a suction cup. The toy is designed to be stuck on a flat surface like the tray of a high chair. It rattles when you hit it.

Paula sticks the suction cup on her forehead and dangles the clown toward Ronnie. She pops another bite of food into his mouth when he laughs.

So far, these shenanigans have paid off. Ronnie is a well-fed, healthy little rascal. But it seems that the effort required to entertain him during meals grows greater and greater.

Like I said at the beginning of this piece, about 20 years from now he won't be able to eat a meal unless his table is set in the bleachers at a three-ring circus—with gymnasts, wild animals and trained ponies performing, while the band plays and the clowns cavort in front of the stands.

And I'll predict that his mother will have been reduced to a shuddering hulk before then.

Regional Planning Program Approved by County Commission

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—Initiation of a new, county-wide regional planning program has been approved by the County Planning Commission.

The project will be headed by Richard Huff, chief of the recently-created regional plan division of the planning department. Huff, who comes from the Philadelphia area, was introduced to commission members at a recent session.

Three projects for the new program were approved by the commission. One is to be preparation of a series of statements on such topics as the county's water, refuse disposal, sewage disposal, farming and transportation situations. Another is to work on natural resources zoning and the third is to prepare a master plan for small craft harbors.

The commission directed that the department Huff is to head should work with the planning directors of the incorporated areas in the county, making a a regional plan technical committee out of these directors. The final results of the regional planning should be submitted to county areas through the directors of the San Diego County Planning Congress, the commission decided. The congress is made up of representatives from planning groups now existing in the county.

In addition, representatives from other organizations in the county are to be asked to help on sub-committees.

A regional plan for the county has been sought by the commission and Dr. Willis H. Miller, county planning director, for severals years, but the project was not approved until this year by the County Board of Supervisors.

The Board put funds for wages for a staff member to study regional planning in the 1959-60 budget. However, no ordinance was passed out to pay the salary, and a number of attempts made by Miller to get Supervisors to approve hiring a planner were rebuffed. The final okay for action came only a month ago.

'Courtesy Week' Planned For Grove By Rotary Club

The Lemon Grove Rotary Club would sponsor "Courtesy Week" in Lemon Grove in February, Rola Hamilton, club president, said this week.

"We plan to ask other service clubs to join a community-wide courtesy program with each club sharing equally in the effort," he said.

Preliminary plans call for choosing Lemon Grove's most courteous business employe, choosing a courteous driver, and sponsoring an essay contest among school children of the community with "courtesy" as the theme.

Joel Artavia is chairman of the Rotary Courtesy committee.

Faculty Artists Display Works At Grossmont

Artists and photographers of the Grossmont Union High School District faculty are showing samples of their work in a show which is planned as an annual event.

Paintings and photographs are displayed in the lower hall of the District Administration Office Building and will be there until December 18 when the Christmas holiday begins.

Plans for the show were sparked by Virginia Clapp, director of placement, and Marj Hyde, art teacher at Grossmont. Teachers from Grossmont, El Cajon Valley, El Capitan, Mt. Miguel, and Helix high schools were invited to submit entries, and faculty wives were included in the invitation. Fourteen paintings from ten artists are being shown and include oil, watercolor, casein, pastel, and wood engraving media. Photographs are enlarged and mounted.

"Much interest expressed in the present show points to a bigger and better one next year," Mrs. Clapp said," and we only regret that we do not have facilities to display crafts, as well."

Public Invited To Program At Junior High

The public is invited to the annual Christmas Program presented by the students of Spring Valley Junior High School, December 16 and 17, at 7:30 p.m. in the school cafetorium.

The play, "The Boy Nobody Wanted," will be given by the drama department, directed by Miss Lucille Tuttle.

Christmas music will be provided by the music department, featuring: The band, directed by Frederick Taylor; the orchestra, directed by Paul Correll; the two girls glee clubs, the boys glee club, the girls ensemble, and the mixed ensemble, directed by Frank Kueter and Miss Margaret Stackhouse.

'Everlasting Light' Topic For Sermon

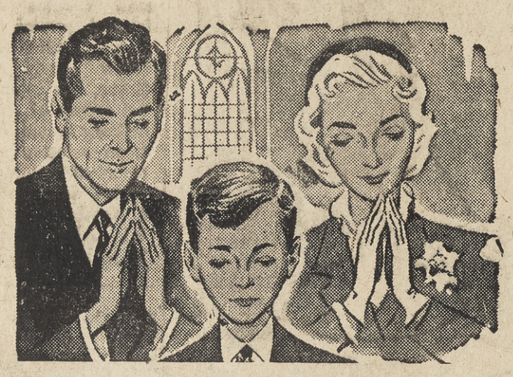
Regular services will be held at 9:30 and 11 a.m. at La Mesa United Presbyterian Church,4426 Harbinson Ave., Sunday with the Rev. Kenneth E. Grant using as his sermon topic, "The Everlasting Light."

On Friday, December 11, Los Companeros will hold their annual Christmas Party in the Fireside Room.

On Monday, December 14, the UPMEN will have a dinner meeting. This will be Ladies Night.

The Rev. Walter E. James, Director of the Los Angeles Presbytery's growing social work and neighborhood house program will be guest speaker. Mr. James was, at one time, a top collegiate wrestler. For a time he was a motorcycle policeman and a youth worker before entering the Presbyterian ministry.

LET US ALL PRAY TOGETHER AS A FAMILY



Christmas was never meant to be meager. It is "good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people." Christmas is magnificent because of the Great Gift for which it stands.

God's Minute

REV. H. C. BAKKEN

"PROPHETIC LIGHT"

Throughout the Old Testament God used His spokesmen to throw the spotlight in the direction of the birth of Christ. The spotlight of prophecy was on the stage and the people of Israel waited breathlessly for the Messiah to appear on the stage. He came in the form of a little child at Bethlehem.

34th Annual Christmas Pageant Scheduled for Four-Night Run

Grossmont High School's thirty-fourth annual Christmas Pageant on December 14, 15, 16, and 17 will feature this year for the first time Handel's "Hallelujah Chorus" as well as the traditional Pageant music sung by the Red Robe Choir under the direction of Mrs. Merle Donohue. James Nichols directs the orchestra.

Richard Dunlop, general Pageant director, has named cast members, and rehearsals for the hour long production are under way. The Pageant, presented without admission cost to the community in the Grossmont auditorium at 8 p.m., is scheduled for four nights this year instead of three as in the past because of community interest.

"Curtain time is 8 p.m., but with parking facilities as they are, people are urged to come early and be at the door by 7:45," said Dunlop.

"At that time, people without tickets are admitted. Babysitting facilities are not provided, and the nature of the performance is not of interest to small children," he continued. No cameras or flash bulbs can be used during the performance, though arrangements for photography after the production can be made.

There will not be a student performance as in years past. Tickets are available free of charge at the Grossmont High School administrative office or may be secured by mail by sending a self-addressed stamped envelope with request for tickets (naming the date and number) to the school.

In the Feast Scene which opens the Pageant, cast members include Jim Waterfield as the Lord; Pat O'Hara as the Lady; Marie and Marilyn Hoff as ballet dancers; Mary Albin, Mark Cook, Phil Starr, Don Caton, Diane Peet, Nancy McMahon and Florence Reamer as other lords and ladies; and Scott Cornelius as page.

In the Madonna Scene which follows, Candy Erickson will be the Madonna. The scene, which includes the candlebearers and a special choir directed by Taylor Evans, is under direction of Mrs. Helene Sherman and Jean Creelman.

Christmas Pictures follow with Keith Julian and Robert Boye as readers. Participating in the pantomime are Susan McConnell and Charlene McFarland as Mary; Don Dart as Joseph; Kirby Bowerfind and Mary Jensen as Gabriel; Ronnie Bronk and Richard Conkey as innkeepers; Dennis Vanier, Craig Beery, and Tom Adams as wise men.

Faculty members assist with the prodction, too. Choreography is done by Rena Driggs; stage manager is James Clouse. Marj Hyde is in charge of properties and James McConnell is in charge of lights. Student assistants are Larry Anderson, Judy Vincent and Beth Ebey.

Business Career Conference Set At High School

A conference of students interested in a business career will be held at Mount Miguel High School this Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the school library. This is another in a series of career conferences being sponsored by the school administration.

Panel members participating from business will explain to students what the business profession has to offer them upon graduation from high school or college.

Those taking part are: Miss Lynn Straub, assistant professor of business at San Diego State College; Mrs. Athene Hensley, public relations director of the U.S. Bank of San Diego and two of Mount Miguel's personnel: Mrs. Emily Hogan, secretary to the principal, and John Stubbs, commercial department head.

Three San Diego State College students will participate: Fred Peterson, Miss Sidney Clark, and Miss Delia Carper, a 1959 graduate of Mount Miguel.

Twilight Shows Set By Area Theatre Group

Twilight performances will be an innovation later this month when Theaterama of El Cajon presents an evening of one-act plays at the Delorise and Gregg dance studio, 227 W. Douglas St., on December 12, 13, 18, 19 and 20.

Curtain time will be 8:30 except for the twilight performances on December 19 and 20 at which time the show starts at 6 p.m.

The three plays, lumped under a heading "3 In a Round" are: "Harps Upon the Willows," an original play by Colim McKay; "Victim of Duty," by Eugene Ionesco, and "Hands Across the Sea," by Noel Coward.

"Harps" recently won three awards at the One-Act Play Festival. "Victims" is a pseudo drama of comedy and tragedy. "Hands" is a typical Coward sophistication exercise.

The playhouse seats fifty. Tickets are $1.25.

Posters Tell Of Christmas

"Do Your Christmas Reading Early." Anyone walking, riding or pedaling a bycycle through Casa De Oro can't possibly help but see these words on posters which are placed in every strategic spot available.

The Christian Social Relations Commission of the Foothills Methodist Church, in an attempt to remind the public of the true spirit of Christmas, has made these posters.

Rev. James King, Pastor at Foothills, said, "It is our hope that these posters will remind the citizens of our community that Christmas time is more than just a time for the exchange of gifts and lavish entertaining, and that we give gifts in celebration of Christ's Birthday."

Yes, complete selections, world-famous brand-named merchandise . . . ease of shopping . . . fair prices and special services are the advantages that make shopping here so sure . . . so sensible . . . so satisfying!

The Chambers of Commerce of Lemon Grove and Spring Valley Urge You To "Shop At Home"

GIFTS HE'LL TREASURE: left to right, a richly toned leather brief bag with expanding sides to accomodate lots of papers; a glove-soft kit for grooming aids with outside pocket for razor, and vinyl lining to protect clothes against accidental leaks; (in her hand) a valet for his ties and jewelry; combination clothes brush and manicure kit; and a wafer-thin underarm case for very important meetings. All in finest leather.

Men Welcome Sweaters

Sweaters are necessary to round out the wardrobe of any well-dressed man, no matter what his age.

The style, color and pattern choice this season is widely varied.

The double-breasted coat sweater promises to be very popular along with the more classic styles.

Red will be a big color with all ages. With the slightly younger men, solid red sweaters will make a big hit.

As with women's fashions for '59-'60 vests (sweater types for men) are important additions.

Stripes predominate in the pattern class. . .ranging from huge to very subdued.

Since sweaters are sure to be fashion foremost, and are so easily fitted, they make an outstanding choice.

Mistletoe and Yule Log In Mythology

No one really knows exactly the origin, or even the meaning, of the Yule log. We know, however, that it is of preChristian origin. The ancient Druids blessed it with great ceremony to celebrate the beginning of the winter season.

In some lands even today, the Yule log is decorated with flowers and wreaths, annointed with wine, then put in the fireplace and set ablaze.

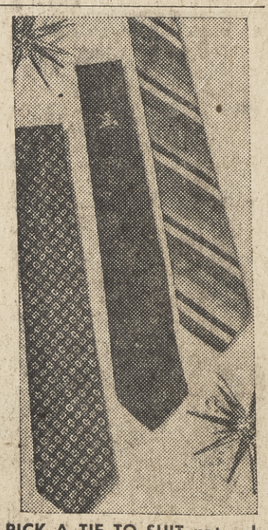
To bring good luck they tell you, the log must not be allowed to burn out during the Christmas season. Besides, a part of it has to be kept to start the fire next year.

It is believed that the ashes of the Yule log have the power to increase the fertility of the land. Thus, in many places the farmers scatter the ashes over their land on New Year's Day.

Another custom that came to us from pre-Christian times, is kissing under the mistletoe. Once the mistletoe was used as a weapon of death. According to Norse mythology, the god of Evil, named Loki, planned to destroy the god of the life-giving warmth Balder.

Balder's mother who was the most influential of all the goddesses, obtained a promise from all living things that they would not harm Balder. All agreed, except the mistletoe who hadn't been asked. So, it was with a mistletoe arrow that Loki induced a blind man to kill the sun god. However, higher powers intervened, and Balder was restored to life. The mistletoe was placed under Frigga's care and she, the mother of Balder, saw to it that it was never again to do harm.

The custom of giving a kiss of love or peace beneath the mistletoe is an assurance that it will never again be used as an instrument of evil.



PICK A TIE TO SUIT not only his outfits, but his personality as well. A design such as a bold foulard is good for an extrovert; a dark toned solid with small motif for the ultra conservative, and for the Ivy type, a repp.

Shops Offer Practically Unlimited Choice of Handsome Male Gifts

The holiday mood runs all through the newest lines of men's sports and leisurewear this Christmas season.

No man can resist that mood when he unwraps his packages and finds it so dazzling expressed in a fun-inviting sports shirt, corduroy jacket and slacks set, lounging pajamas with complementing bathrobe, princely slippers or a host of other handsome things to wear.

The same lift will come from a new ski-wear outfit, hunting jacket, suburban coat—all perfect for him if he's winter-sports-minded. Or if he's headed South for a tropical mid-winter vacation, he will be happier still with a cabana swim set, beach robe, sandals, cool slacks and sports shirts, sports socks and the like.

Men's fashion designers have gone all out to cater to the man who likes to offset his hard-working business hours with fun and relaxation.

Casual-wear, styles for action and for free-time—they all add up to improving the extra hours and days.

Among new-trend gift suggestions for the holiday-minded man are these:

Outwear coats, extra long this season, with knitted or fur-trimmed shawl collars, in favored grays when made of wool, or natural shades in cotton and blends.

Button-front sports shirts, with regular spread collars or button-downs, in burnished tones of gold and olive, in solid colors or neatly patterned effects.

Sweaters — an overwhelming selection to choose from, including four-and six-button cardigans, bulky pull-overs, Scandinavian Ski-wear styles, fine wool pull-overs—in solid colors or a wide range of intricate patterns.

Indulge his leisure mood also with smart new slacks or a handsome belt. Warm sports jackets for the stay-at-home Northerner are also a must—in medium-weight wool or wool bended with man-made fibers.

A dressier fannel blazer with flannel slacks are just the thing for casual social times at a winter resort.

Warmy lined after-ski boots, water-repellent gloves or mittens, sports mufflers, ski and skating pants,wool sports socks and woolen scarves complete the wide range from which you can find just the gift with a lift he needs.

The trend to sunny area winter vacations continues to grow! Special items he'll need for his tropical sojourn will be walk shorts that come this season in pleated and Ivy models in a variety of lengths; sportswear ranging from wash-wear jackets to shirts' in attroctive lightweight styles; featherweight sweaters, cool slacks and colorful swim and beach sets.

To round out the wardrobe for winter fun occasions, North or South, formal wear is a must on every man's list. In the right weights for the right climates, they're to be had in black and midnight blue models—the single-breasted shawl style still in number one position.

Giving these formal suits a run for leadership, however, are the new Continental models, and the Ivy tuxedos, too. A big advantage nowadays is the lighter weight of most formal models, making for greater ease and comfort.

And here's the last suggestion for Christmas giving: Check his jewelry — cufflinks, tie-pins and the like — and make sure his are up-to-date.

Always Right For Man's Gift

Keyed to helping a man appear his best is the new gift package idea . . . attractively wrapped combinations of accessories, in matching colors and patterns.

These gift combinations boast great eye appeal for Dad or Junior, and. . .they're practical, too. They save a shopper time, and the man or boy receiving them can be sure that the colors and patterns are properly coordinated.

KIMONO CHRISTMAS, that's what it will be for the man who receives this smart robe. Sure to be his favorite gift! Of all-wool jersy, more than a yard wide.

Slip Him Into Comfy Slippers This Christmas

Give him slippers and make him happy. This is one item that is easy to shop for too. Sizes don't have to be exact as some items of wearing apparel.

There are many styles to choose from this Christmas too. The favorite models have returned with new and richer leathers . . . and now in more colors. New slippers take off from the designs of the newer styles of men's shoes.

Then, too, you can always give him a gift certificate for a pair of comfy slippers!

BOOTS FOR SPORTSMEN

Boots rate high as gifts with the sportsman. Check his shoes for the size—or if in doubt, you can always give him a gift certificate and he can select his own.

Sturdy leather boots with flexible soles, that protect feet from rough terrain and yet allow freedom of movement for comfort over long stretches of walking or standing are preferred. Hunting boots, riding boots, ski boots and hiking boots come into this category.

"To learn your luck for the year they say,
Burn a bayberry dip on Christmas day.
If the flame burns bright and the light shines clear,
Good luck will be yours through the year."

Glamour Gifting Needn't Be Too, Too Expensive

It's easy to give wings to a woman's wishes at Christmas time . . . especially when local shops are showing hundreds upon hundreds of desirable, wish-for giftable items!

Most often the primary and determining factor is the price you have to pay—but you can flatter her wishes and pamper your budget too, with a bit of careful pre-planning.

GIVE HER JEWELRY — you can choose the finest diamonds at extravagant prices if you can afford to, but simple costume jewelry items nowadays are crafted with all the precision and beauty of rare pieces!

FURS—perhaps she's dreaming of a full length mink . . . but if your choice is a "man-made" precious pile fiber one, she'll cuddle into it with pleasure. Perhaps her yen for mink doesn't extend to coats—she may be thrilled with a gift of a handsome mink (or other fur) collar, a cape, a stole or perhaps a rich-looking fine orlon or cashmere sweater with a real fur collar.

NEW WATCHES—you needn't spend a fortune to find a glamour watch for your special "she." There's the greatest line-up ever, of frivolous fancies in dependable timepieces. With fancy bracelet bands, novel faces, colors of the rainbow and striking designs, it's difficult to tell whether these novelty watches cost under twenty-five dollars or over a hundred!

FINE PERFUMES—Of course, she loves the finest, and you do want to give her the best. But you don't have to buy the exorbitant decanter size when her favorite fragrance will thrill her equally when you give her that smart purse size flacon (and you'll help her make it last longer when you complement it with a twin cologne so much less expensive, too.)

So, if she wants the moon on a silver platter, shop around carefully—and give it to her on a "sparkle-like silver" aluminum" one.

Consider Closet Accessories Too

Gay-colored, quilted boxes for handkerchiefs, hosiery, gloves and scarves encourage "ship shapeliness" of bureau drawers.

Plastic or fabric envelopes for sweaters, men's shorts and lingerie do their part toward neatness, too.

Smart chrome multi-hanger units for blouses, skirts, handbags, belts or ties; shoe racks too—are practical presents with a handy future.

A convenient, multi-drawered small chest can be used by either man or woman.

Notion departments feature these practical, "gifted" items as well as dozens of others!

Garment and blanket bags in all sizes and colors; wardrobe closets that may be easily dismantled for storage all have their own appeal to the good housekeeper.

Each of the gifts received by the Infant Jesus from the Three Wise Men had a symbolic meaning: gold expressed the royalty of the Babe; frankincense for His priesthood, myrrh for Christ's entombment.

FRENCH IMPORT! This chic set combines a spray perfume purser with matching flacon of eau de toilette spray mist. Neither can spill or evaporate. Each spray is measured. A heavenly scent she'll love.

Earrings Are Toppings for Gay Belles

Earrings dramatize both the story of texture and the power of color. Button earrings take the lead for classic wear, and the upsweep and dangle designs are splendidly related to the "dress-up" look in afterdark fashions.

An important trend in jewelry accessorizing this season calls for mixing as well as matching. This is seen in gold earrings worn with pearls, and colored stones with a gold necklace. The traditional "matched look" of necklace and earrings will continue strong, and has been elaborated to include the pairing of earrings with pin or bracelet.

Rules for Safe Tree Light-Up

Everyone should have a beautifully decorated Christmas tree, but . . . everyone should remember that that same beautiful tree can be dangerous.

If you don't follow a few simple rules, your gay Christmas tree can become a grim fire-hazard!

Mount the tree in a stand that holds water. This will keep the tree fresh and green.

Keep the tree away from open fireplaces, radiators, TV sets and electric lights.

Don't overload the tree's circuit by putting too many lights on one circuit. Make sure that the wires are not frayed! Turn off the lights when there's nobody around to watch them!

Trimmings should be fireproof. Keep the base of the tree free from combustibles such as loose papers and ribbons.

Lighted candles are a menace as well as outmoded. Don't use them!

Be sure to dispose of the tree in a fire-safe area. If you intend to burn it in the fire-place, don't leave it unattended, as more than just the tree may go up in smoke..

Yes—you can make certain that you and your family really do have a safe, and merry Christmas!

MAKE IT A BLUE CHRISTMAS and make her happy! This Cerulean (blue) Mink is young-at-heart-styled to appeal to every woman no matter what age. Called the "Up 'n Over," it's designed to go on over the head, though is sometimes comes with a hidden full-length front zipper. Modestly priced!

Christmas Fun Calls for Care

Last year almost 600 people lost their lives over the Christmas Holiday, more than half of them because of alcohol.

This cheerful season has become a season of mourning. All over the nation, grim hearses will follow in the wake of Santa's sleigh with victims who had too much cheer and too little caution on the road afterward. There are more auto accidents on Christmas Eve than on any other holiday.

The princial reason: drivers who have been drinking. No driver should ever forget this: having more than one ounce of alcohol in one hour, makes you a "dangerous" driver!

Traffic accidents on Christmas Eve have reached a staggering total in recent years. New Year's Eve is a close second.

In 1957, a four-day Christmas vacation, resulted in 706 fatalities! Last year there were "only" 580 people killed. Between forty-eight and fifty-five percent of these deaths were caused by drunken drivers, or by drivers who had something to drink, according to the National Safety Council.

Police and traffic authorities everywhere agree that the drunken driver, even the mildly intoxicated one, is more dangerous on the highway than the speedster, reckless driver, thrill seeker or thoughtless driver.

Choose Yule Tree With Special Care

Shop as wisely for your Christmas tree as you do for that very special gift. In order to get a lovely tree that will stay that way there are several considerations.

Most important — check the tree for freshness. Gently shake a few of the branches. If needles fall off, the tree is "too old."

Be sure to measure the height you want for the tree in your home, and then take that yardstick with you when you buy. A tree in an open-air lot looks smaller than it actually is. It's a waste of money buying a tree that is too tall; it also means it will have to be cut down.

Many people feel that it is worth it to spend a little more and get a fire-proofed tree. Many families are selecting the colored trees in place of the green ones. This is simply a matter of taste.

There are four kinds of trees that are popular and generally the best—Douglas Fir, White Fir, Silvertip and Minnesota Spruce.

Oldest Christian Church Stands In Bethlehem

Probably the oldest church in Christianity is the Church of the Nativity, built upon the spot where the stable stood. It was erected by Emperor Constantine the Great, in 330 A.D.

The church looks like a fortress. Its original stately portal has been walled up and replaced by a low and narrow entrance. There was a reason for this. In the first place, it compels the many pilgrims to bow before they enter. In the second place it was designed to keep the infidels from riding in on horseback or camel.

The interior of the church is dignified and simple, set off by beautiful Corinthian columns of native red sandstone. The roof is of massive oak. Silver lamps burning olive oil are suspended on gold and silver chains from the beams.

A silver star, fastened to a simple altar with silver nails, marks the exact spot where the Infant Jesus was born.

Three steps lead down to a small cave-like recess, the Chapel of the Manger. Beautiful tapestries and rugs are draped across the walls. Fifteen silver lamps are kept burning eternally in honor of Him for Whom there was no place in the world on the night of His birth.

Robes Rate With Femmes

There's a lot of fashion news in the robe story for Christmas giving.

From the classic wrap-around flannels, to elegant wide-sweep beauties, the robe story is elegant!

Most popular in both casual and more luxurious fabrics is the loose fitted style in the duster length.

Smartly printed cottons, cotton flannels and cotton quilts make up into neat novelties for about-the-house wear.

Woven nylon quilts, nylon tricot quilts and nylon chiffon quilts shape up into some of the smartest new robes.

The perennially popular quilted rayon, new handlings in chenille and corduroy, soft wools and fleeces, as well as the more traditional silk, lined nylons and satin-types continue to score in robe styes.

Zippered front, smooth fitting brunch coats . . . patch pocketed, button-front dusters . . . semi-fitted or free 'n' loose peignior styles lead the array with such details as braid trims, smocking, bows, binding and ric rac trims, lavish lace touches, handsome yoke and sleeve handlings, beautiful prints and—above all—wonderful wearability, soft colors and usually washability.

This year, say "Merry Christmas" with lingerie for all the gals!

Dress Shirts For Holiday Male List

One of the sure-fire gifts for Christmas that always will be appreciated by the men on your gift list is a shirt.

Whether the recipient is six or sixty, he'll always be glad to add one or more dress shirts to his wardrobe. There are quite a few shirt ideas to choose from. There appears to be a collar and fabric to go with all the variations in the clothing picture.

Some of the typical ideas range from wide spread collars to new tabs. It makes selecting a shirt a little bit more difficult, since no one particular type of shirt is top fashion. It should not be difficult, however, to find out what type of a shirt is preferred.

Big news in men's dress shirts was made by the revival of fancy fabrics, fancy patterns, fronts and cuffs. Stripes appear with broken dobby accents . . . bamboo and pinks have joined the color parade. Many shirts feature pleats, contrast plackets and even embroidering.

Utility takes a backseat to fashion, and you can be sure to please the men on your list with a dress shirt, whether they wear Ivy or Continental style!

Old, Old Carols Still Ring Out at Yuletime

Christmas season — clear, crisp nights, stars and sparkling lights . . . and Christmas Carols ringing across the scene!

Many of the carols we hear this Christmas have been handed down generation to generation, century by century.

Changes have been made in words and music, according to the changing times, but most of the Christmas songs will be just as you might have heard them hundreds of years ago.

According to the Bible story of Christmas, the first carol was sung by a chorus of angels—the "Gloria in Excelsio Deo," "Glory to God in the Highest."

The early settlers in America brought many of the old European carols to our country, thus giving us a heritage of songs as no other country in the world enjoys.

"Adeste Fidelis" which we also sing with the words "Come All Ye Faithful," long a traditional hymn, has an unknown origin.

"Away in a Manger," Luther's hymn, came to us from Germany. "God Rest Ye, Merry Gentlemen" from England and the lovely "O, Holy Night" from France. From Austria came "Silent Night, Holy Night."

Americans, too, have contributed to our rich heritage of Christmas songs. The Unitarian minister Edmund H. Sears composed "It Came Upon a Midnight Clear."

Perhaps the best known and most beloved of all American carols, "O Little Town of Bethlehem" was written in 1868 by Philips Brooks, a young Episcopalian minister.

The gay holiday song, "Jingle Bells," has been popular for almost a century and was composed by another American, churchman, John Pierpont.

Our big selection of Christmas songs, hymns and carols express the friendly, joyful spirit of the season . .. and are loved by all!

It's Good Idea To 'Take Notes' On Christmas

Wise idea for making you a smart Mrs. Santa: start a Christmas notebook! Every time you see a good idea or think of one, for making the holiday brighter, and easier for you . . . put it in your notebook. Here too you can keep your list of cards and gifts sent and received.

Once you have used this handy book, you will always keep one . . . and will probably suggest that your friends might want to do the same.

Give 'Oldsters' 'Young Spirit' Gift Surprises

Need some good ideas for what to give the "oldsters" on your list? Here are a few to get started . . .

First for consideration might be a robe. New, warm but washable types, generally serve best . . . and come in a wide range of styles for your choice.

Sweaters are good for both men and women. An attractive stole for Grandmother is generally most appreciated.

Slippers, too, are popular with the older crowd. If you don't know the correct size, a gift certificate can be arranged.

Remember—folks in this age group still enjoy many activities and still like little luxuries! Give them something they can use, of course, but also keep it gay and gifty!

Here's Brand New Gift for the Home

A good looking yard lantern which keeps "an eye to the sky" and turns itself off and on automatically may prove to be the ideal gift for the home-owner who seems to have everything.

Adding charm and utility to the front or backyard, patio or porch, the lantern has a photo electric cell which turns the lamp on when the sun goes down; turns it off at sunrise to provide economical lighting even when the homeowner is away.

An electric outlet built into the base of the lantern provides a handy plug-in for Christmas lights, outdoor tools barbecue equipment, etc.

BRILLIANT COMBINATION!

The dazzling bracelet and earrings combine to set off fashions as luxurious as fur. Set against the gold of the bracelet are oversize blossoms, rhinestone-frosted, set with cut rubies. Matching blossom earring.

GIFT FOR GRANDPARENTS, or anyone especially fond of your children, is a portrait photograph of the youngsters at their very best! Handsomely framed, the photo becomes a home decoration piece.

Child's Photo Portrait Always Welcome Gift

Portrait photographs make wonderful, personal gifts as warm and alive as a handshake and as welcome as a sprig of Christmas cheer on a blustery December day.

Children especially make stunning portraits, as they pass a new milestone each Christmas.

Here are some tips to remember when having the small fry photograped:

Be sure the child is well rested and fed. Hair should be simply styled and natural looking. Avoid the plastered down style for boys; too tight curls for little girls. Dress the child in snug-fitting clothes—perhaps last year's—so they will have a smooth line. Be sure they are neatly pressed; avoid ruffles or flounces that distract.

If the child has a favorite toy, take it along; it will help the child relax. Many photographers suggest that the best portrait can be made if the child is not told he is to have his picture taken until he arrives at the studio.

Although most photographers prefer to have mother or parents in the studio during the sitting, by all means let the photographer take the picture. He can get the best expression in a portrait when he wins the child's confidence.

'Official' Date Of Christmas Set In 4th Century

The history of the Christmas observance is one that has intrigued clerical and lay scholars for countless years.

Researchers have found that as fas back as the fourth century, the Christmas festival was already an established custom dating back to earlier eras.

The word Christmas began as "Christ's Mass" or as in old English "Christes Masse" or the Mass of Christ, following the custom of the church in abserving the anniversaries of deaths, rather than births.

It was not until St. Cyril, Bishop of Jerusalem, set out to affirm one day for a universal observance that Christ's Mass was changed from its previous celebration in the spring (as we now observe Easter).

The good Bishop was granted permission by Pope Juniius I to appoint a group of theologians to determine as accurately as possible, the exact date of Christ's nativity.

Too many years had elapsed for absolute accuracy, and after discovering various contradictions of calendars, astrological calculations, the date for the celebration of Christ's Mass was set by the Church for December 25th.

So it is that since the year 345 A.D., this date has been observed as the date of the Saviour's birth.

Members of the Greek, Russian and Ukrainian, Orthodox sian and Ukrainian Orthdox Churches celebrate this on January 6th.

To this day, the festival of Christmas still occurs on many different dates throughout the world.

December 6th is the day when Christmas is observed in most Western European countries and marks the beginning of a long, happy holiday season!

FOR SPORTS FANS

For those who are fond of spectator sports, such gifts as cameras and leather gadget bags for the amateur photographer, binoculars, sports apparel and a cushion for those double-headers will be very welcome.

Card-Exchanging Idea More Than Century Old

One hundred and sixteen years ago, the English educator and art patron, Henry Cole, asked his friend J. C. Horsely, an artist of the Royal Academy in London, to design a card for him. On it he wrote the now classic greeting, "A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to You." He printed a thousand lithograhed copies, which were then hand tinted by a professional "colorer."

That December, early in the month, Cole posted some of the cards to his friends, and offered the remainder for sale in a London stationers shop. These, in all probability, were the very first Christmas cards ever printed.

Christmas Cards appeared in America only shortly thereafter. Their early origin is uncertain, but one story gives credit for the first Yule greeting to a New York State dry goods merchant, R. J. Pease of Albany.

Pease, designed, printed and mailed one of the first examples of American Christmas Cards as an advertisement for his goods.

The "Father" of the American Christmas Card is Louis Prang. He created exquisitely beautiful cards in his lithography shop in Boston in 1874. Soon he was selling his cards all over the United States for several dollars each.

Prang's card appeared in as many as 20 colors. Very few of them used Christmas scenes, but instead was illustrated with designs of spring flowers, harvest scenes and pictures of children playing.

From that small beginning in Boston grew a demand for cards that is so great today, that many large companies work year 'round to turn out billions of cards of every description.

A WORK OF ART, taking its cue from "avant garde" creation, is this sophisticated, subtle-prine square silk scarf. It's a gift any smart woman will cherish and show off!

FOR "MAN ABOUT TOWN"! This new After Six formal accessory features slip pockets for such handy carrying items as an ultra-miniature Minox camera, keys or tickets.

YOUR FAVORITE MAN deserves to relax in a good-looking robe such as the one shown here. It's in Chromspun acetate that takes countless washings perfectly.

Sportsmen's Gift Addenda

The ranks of skiers are growing year by year and if your "gift problem" is among them, buy something for the slopes.

For instance a colorful parka, a pair of sleek stretch pants, lined leather gloves that extend well above the wrist to keep the snow out, or a handy leather pouch that fastens to a belt to hold car keys, cigarettes, etc.

FOR THE GOLFER

Although the golf enthusiast usually prefers to select his own clubs, he is most receptive to such gifts as a golf bag, a pair of lightweight golf shoes, a golf cart, and the numbered club head "mitts." All are best in leather. Not in leather, but of course always welcome, are golf balls!

Casual Togs Top Male Want Lists

Casual clothes for men have never been more handsome. Slacks and sports shirts especially, both fine for gifts, are new-looking and good-looking.

Slacks are newest both cuffless and beltless. Pockets are different here too, with western-style variations and the slash types outstanding.

Slacks are now available in big bold plaids and other unusual-for-men patterns, as well as the more conventional solid and muted patterns.

In shirts there is the choice of heavy, like wool, or light, like cotton, in either short or long sleeves.

The big news here is that there are so many styles, patterns and colors. You are sure to find a sports shirt that the man on your list will really like.

The cover-ups for these casual outfits, sports coats and jackets, offer a wide range for your selection too . . . and the choice is better than good.

The Continental, of course, is the biggest favorite in sports coats. . .and fabrics are the outside - quilted ones. Many have pile hoods or collars.

Check the new wash 'n' wear slacks and shirts too. . .these will certainly be appreciated.

Sign Greeting Cards Carefully And Properly

One of the most warm-hearted traditions of the Christmas season is the exchange of greeting cards. At this time of the year close friends and casual acuaintances take time out to express their best wishes.

However, sometimes it can be pretty confusing to receive a card from somebody you've never heard of. The proper way to sign a Christmas card often poses a problem for many people.

In the first place, one should never forget to put the complete return address on the envelope.

In the second place, the signature you use should be determined by the type of card and the person who receives it.

If you have chosen a gay, casual greeting for close friends, you can sign it simply with your first name. If you're married sign the first name of both, followed by the last name.

With married couples, the one signing the cards, always writes his or her name last.

If you prefer to have your cards printed, the wife's name comes first.

When there are children, the signature as a family group is always in good taste, whether it is printed or written; for example, "The Smiths."

The conventional signature is always acceptable for the greetings sent to business acquaintances. The formal "Mr. and Mrs. John G. Smith" should be printed, and the card should be more formal in both design and message.

Scarves Make Pleasing Presents

Holidal fashions square-off in a new and delightfully different medley of scarves that make ideal gifts for every gal on your list.

Whether she's school-girl, matron, or in-between, it's easy to find just the size and color to accent her individuality.

The newest 36" scarves convert with ease into loose, low ties, cowl drapes or wide-away neckline loops.

Whether as a colorful extra or a cherished gift, scarves fill the bill in every way.

'Fire Plant' From Mexico Is Poinsettia

More than a hundred years ago our Ambassador to Mexico Joel Roberts Poinsett, took a fancy to a brilliant tropical plant, known as the Mexican Fire Plant.

Returning to his home in South Carolina, he started growing the plant from cuttings he brought from Mexico. Soon the scarlet-leafed plant came to the attention of American botanists, and under the name "poinsettia," it was destined to become symbolic of Christmas.

In tropic climates, poinsettia is grown in varieties of white, pink and yellow, but by far the most popular is the bright red that carries out the color scheme of Christmas.

BETHLEHEM

The meaning of the word Bethlehem, the city where Christ was born, is home of bread. Although Beth resembles our word bread and lehem is close in sound to home . . . actually the translation is reversed: Beth is home; lehem is bread!

'Santa' Grew From Legends Told In Many Countries

Just how old is Santa Claus? Where does he come from? Why does he enter by way of the chimney? Why does he drive a sleigh?

Even the best reference sources do not quite agree about the ancestry of the jolly, big-hearted fellow we know.

But, after all, is it so important whether the name Santa Claus has its origin in the Dutch "Sinterklaas," or in the German "Christkindl" or "Kris Kringle"?

It is generally agreed that the idea for our modern day Santa Claus began with a young boy called Nicholas over 1600 years ago.

During his early years, growing up in the Asia Minor portion of present-day Turkey, he was generous and pious. These qualities grew within him until as a man he became the bishop of Myra.

His most famous deed of generosity was directed toward three beautiful daughters of a poor nobleman. He wanted dowries for his children so they could be married.

So, Nicholas on three different nights tossed bags of gold through a window of their home, and each daughter could be married and well cared for.

Down through the centuries the story of Saint Nicholas was carried to other countries and when unexpected gifts appeared they were attributed to him.

Dutch children still wait for Saint Nicholas, or "Sinterklass" as they call him. He is pictured as a kindly, white-bearded bishop who rides a white horse over the housetops when he lowers his gifts down the chimney.

It is to this "Sinterklaas," brought over by the early Dutch settlers, that we give thanks for Santa's custom and method of giving, for the full white beard, riding over housetops and, partially, for his name.

Santa Claus had many other forerunners, some who still bring gifts in his place to children in other lands.

Another "ancestor" of Santa came from Germany. "Christkindl," sometimes called "Kriss Kringle," is a little messenger of the Christ child. This same angel also was the gift-giver to the Swiss children. There the angel arrived in a sleigh drawn by six reindeer. The elves, Santa's fine helpers, are "imported" from Norway.

Dr. Clement Clark Moore, a seminary professor, wrote "A visit from St. Nicholas" ("The Night Before Christmas") for his children. He vividly described Santa Claus, bringing together all the many legends he knew.

In 1863, cartoonist Thomas Nast was commissioned to illustrate Moore's poem. Santa Claus, much as we see him today pictured everywhere at Christmas, emerged from Nast's drawing board 96 years ago in New York City.

Since then, this red and white garbed fellow known as Santa Claus with the big heart, the jolly face and abundant goodwill is here to stay and is now quite, quite real for every child!

The world's oldest Christmas trees, 400 of them, stand 600 feet above the Mediterranean. These are the cedars of Lebanon.

Chafing Dishes, Coffee Warmers On Holiday Lists

As the trend leans more and more toward casual living, chafing dish cookery grows in popularity. Brass chafing dishes or coffee warmers will make ideal Christmas gifts for the women who like to cook and entertain at the same time.

Being shown also are Swedish coffee hottens. The coffee pot is set on the black wrought iron holder which contains a candle in a small red glass, to keep the coffee warm. Unique coffee servers seen in the stores this year are individual Pyrex flasks which are to be set by each person's place at the table.

Dressing Up for Christmas

DANCE UNTIL DAWN during the holidays in this beautifully shaped gown that is enhanced with bows and roses at the shoulder. Fabric of Estron insures a luxurious hand and lasting crispness.

DATE-TIME DRAMA in this silk satin cocktail dress with wide midriff that rises high to the plunging V.-Shaped bodice. Softly full skirt features inverted pleat and unpressed darts.

Christmas is Gift Time

The giving of gifts has been an important part of the holiday season ever since the Wise Men and the shepherds brought gifts to the Holy Child in Bethlehem. Gifts expressing love and goodwill are given all over the world at this time.

After the Christmas Eve feast in Poland, Mother Star,, who is dressed like an angel in a white robe and veil, distributes the gifts after Father Star, who is a bit to be feared, listens to the children's prayers and catechism.

In Norway, they remember the birds and animals with seed and choice sheaves of grain tied to trees and roof tops; extra fodder is provided for the cattle.

Candles shine from every window in Bavaria to light the Kristkind on her way from home to home. She is the messenger of the Infant Jesus and Bavarian children believe that she brings them their gifts. She wears a white robe and has golden wings.

In Holland, Dutch children wait anxiously for the arrival of St. Nicholas. Dressed in traditional Bishop's robes, he carries a croizer and wears a mitre. He brings gifts for the children which he places in their shoes standing in the chimney corner.

Gifts are given to the Swiss children by a radiant angel who rides in a sleigh drawn by six reindeer.

English children wait for Father Christmas who puts gifts in their stockings. They also find gifts tied to a Christmas tree.

In Spain, the Three Wise Men deliver gifts as they continue their way to Bethlehem.

"La Befana," the mystical wanderer in search of the Christ Child, delivers the gifts to the children in Italy. She is represented carrying a broom and goes from house to house.

'Boy-Type' Gifts In Accessories for Tailored Miss

Fashion favors the gal who wears that wonderfully-casual man tailoring with a host of novelty accessories discreetly borrowed from the male of the species.

To complement the mannish-mood accessories, fabrics and tailored details, there are handsome silk surah ascot - type scarves (perfect fill-ins for vests and cardigan jackets); handsome cuff-links for her French-cuff blouses and shirts; many of the new belts in leather, fabric or leather and fabric take on definitely mannish flavors and even pocket handkerchiefs have a "male" flavor with "crowned" initials, tape borders and neat crossbars.

Reigious medals and crosses set with diamonds are popular gift items.

GROUP SINGS take on new life and extra fun when someone strums the guitar. It's easy for beginners to master . . . makes a grand gift for young and old alike.

HIS OWN! A tasteful, lavish gift that features his initials on the cuff links and tie bar set. Elegant in gleaming silver or gold "satin and silk" finish.

Variety in Jewelry for Male Gifts

"The little touches" of good taste, reflected in the jewelry a man wears or in the accessories he carries, can be the Christmas gift inspirations of those closest to him.

Personal accessories are pure flattery for any man, the Jewelry Industry Council points out, and this year's fashion changes point the way to some new gift ideas for pampering the male.

The Continental trend in men's fashions has sparked larger and more elegant cuff links. Textured gold effects and links set with real or simulated stones give a new touch to his appearance.

The new, elegant ties call for something special in the way of a tie clasp. Tie bars, often discreetly decorated with smart masculine stones, are perfect accents.

The new tiny tie tacks in a wide variety of designs have won the favor of men of all ages.

These little decorative accessories have a practical value too for they hold the tie neatly in place. Because of their small size they tend to add to, rather than detract from, the pattern of the tie. They range from a single, classic cultured pearl to beautiful gold tacks set with a gleaming diamond.

Christmas Music Scored by Both Handel and Bach

It's strange but true: Two of the most famous composers of Christmas music were both born in the same year, 1685, lived for many years within thirty miles of each other—and yet they never met!

The composers: were Johann Sebastian Bach and George Frederick Handel.

Handel's "Messiah" will be heard at least in part, in numerous churches and schools throughout the country. "Joy to the World" is taken from the "Messiah." The musical theme of "While Shepherds Watched Their Flocks" also comes from this master.

From Bach's 'Christmas Oratorio" comes the themes of several other well known chorales. He is also the composer of "How Brightly Beams the Morning Star."

Bach and Handel both proved themselves masters of Christmas music that is beautiful and easily enjoyed.

SOMETHING NEW!

The Christmas holiday brings with it a wealth of stately religious hymns and heart-warming carols! Even pop tunes add notes of listening pleasure. And gift recordings can extend that pleasure through the whole year.

Music lovers this Christmas have a special treat awaiting them in stereophonic sound, the new tonal magic now available for home high fidelity music systems.

Gals Love Lingerie Lovelies

Mention lovely, lacy lingerie to any girl (no matter what her age) and watch her eyes light up! That's why when it comes to special gift items, lingerie is the perfect gift for her!

Everywhere on the lingerie scene, there's something new, something bright, something lovely!

Just for example—take a long look at the delightful, "long" panties with their tiers of "can-can" ruffles at the knee . . . so delightful in their old-fashioned "pantaloon" inspired charm. For the modern miss, they come in nylon tricot and gay colors; many have camisole tops.

New, too, are jumper topped waltz-length gowns or pedal-pusher length p.j.'s . . . she'll hop out of bed in the "sleep unit," toss the jumper on, and lo—she's ready for callers! (Best of all, they double for daytime wear with blouse beneath).

The woman at ease will love the sportswear-inspired lounging pajamas with their midcalf or longer, lean pants and easy tops! Just name the color, fabric and style—there's such a wide, wide variety of these!

For the "snug as a bug in a rug" feeling, easy goin' balbriggan, cuddly challis and gay flannelettes are ideal chill chasers in sleepwear.

There's a glamour note to the Orient - inspired collection of robes, pajamas and ensembles. The elegance of kimonas detailing and mandarin coat lines are interpreted smartly in fine nylons, silks and smooth rich cottons. They are often printed in vibrant colors, trimmed with embroidery or braid.

For Christmas gifting, gown selections are most diversified—they range from dainty, baby-doll shorties to more conservative waltz-lengths and to the floor-length styles.

Make your gift more lavish, ensemble the gown with a matching peignoir . . . cape-like collars, lace by the yard, appliques and embroidery help make the new season crop of ensembles quite exciting.

No matter what style you favor, there's a riot of color, trim, fine silks and nylons awaiting your final choice.

IN INTIMATE APPAREL

The return of the natural waistline heralds a revival of elegant underpinnings—fine nylon tricots, nylon crepes, silks, etc., are used to underscore elegantly detailed slips and half slips.

Applique trims, fine laces, medallion inserts, the daintiest of pleated detail, trapunto trims and scalloping—are but a few of the many accents that make lingerie so lovely, so much wanted at Christmas time.

BOUFFANTS ARE BACK

Shirtwaist dresses, full skirt handlings and a return to more flared skirts make the bouffant petticoat a welcome addition to any wardrobe.

Ruffles, tiers of skirts, lots of pleats, ribbons, lace—all distinguish the underskirts of the season.

Christmas Seals for Fund Raising Were Initiated in 1903 in Denmark

At home entertainment . . . television, radio, hi-fi, phonograph . . . any one of these would be welcomed. Books, too, are good . . . so is a subscription to a magazine or book club.

Ask the "man on the street" who originated Christmas Seals and his answer will probably be, "The National Tuberculosis Association."

It's true that the first seals sold in this country were for the purpose of raising money to help stamp out tuberculosis—however this occurred four years and thousands of miles away from the point of origin.

The idea of seals for use in charity fund raising was conceived by a postal clerk in Denmark in 1903.

Einar Holboell mentioned his plan to his fellow workers who began to help him with enthusiasm.

The idea reached King Christian, who approved, and the image of the Danish Queen Louise appeared on the first seals in 1904.

Jacob Riis, Danish-born American, saw these seals on letters and packages arriving to this country from Denmark.

In 1907, a magazine article, which Riis wrote about seals, attracted the attention of a Red Cross worker, Miss Emily Bissell. She was concerned about the fate of a small sanitorium and decided to use the idea in its behalf.

The first seal in America, designed by Miss Bissell, was a wreath of holly encircling the words "Merry Christmas."

She promptly had 50,000 of them printed, but had no way of selling them. The aid of a columnist on a Philadelphia newspaper was enlisted. Within a few weeks $3,000 was collected.

The following year, a nationwide sale was held. It was supported by publications and groups all over the country—and sponsored by the American Red Cross and the National Tuberculosis Association.

Today, thousands of dollars are raised each year by the sale of this one seal. Dozens of other groups, too, have taken up the idea and many kinds of vital charity work are now aided

LEMON GROVE REVIEW
AND SUBURBANITE
THURSDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1959 SECTION B — PAGE 1

Mrs. Thomas Duffner, Mrs. James Grandfield, Mrs. Michael Connolly and Mrs. Leonard Wingo rehearse Christmas carols.

Pendergrass-Hobson Wedding Held Saturday

Howard D. Pendergrass Jr. and Susan Nancy Hobson, both graduates of Mt. Miguel High School, were married Saturday afternoon at the Lemon Grove Methodist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. John C. Boyd of Lemon Grove and Mr. George Hobson of Redondo Beach. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Kathryn Pendergrass of Lemon Grove and Mr. Howard D. Pendergrass of Texas.

The Rev. Donald B. Cooke performed the ceremony with Mrs. Richard Wilson serving as maid of honor and Mr. Hobson giving the bride away.

The bride wore a gown of taffetta and chantilly lace with scooped neck, a shoulder length veil and cultured pearls.

The Misses Mary Martin and Cecelia Real were the bride's maids. William Parkllan, Lawrence Tomassi, Orlin Edwards and Lawrence Schoonmaker were ushers. Michael Meyers was best man.

Bucky Pendergrass and Charlotte McComas sang a duet.

The new couple will be at home at 3025 Fisher Lane, Lemon Grove.

Mrs. Howard D. Pendergrass Jr.

Fire Auxiliary Holds Party, Plans Help

The Spring Valley Fire Dept. Woman's Auxiliary held its Christmas meeting and gift exchange at the home of Mrs. Florence Rauscher last week. The group made extensive plans to help a couple of needy Spring Valley families at Christmas time.

A Christmas party for children of firemen will be held at the Pals and Gals clubhouse the afternoon of Dec. 20. In the evening of the same day there will be a husband-wife Christmas party at Fire Station 2, for firemen and their wives.

Next meeting of the S.V.F.D. Auxiliary will be Jan. 7, at the home of President Donna Sass.

Vogues President Plans Christmas Party at Home

Mrs. J. B. Collier, chairman of the Vogue Section of the Lemon Grove Woman's Club, will entertain club members at their annual Christmas party in her home at 7811 Palm St., Lemon Grove, on Tuesday, December 15, at 8 p.m.

A large Christmas tree will grace the room under which bright packages will be placed for a gift exchange. The table decor will carry the Yule theme with Christmas candles and gilded pine cones.

Games and Christmas carols are planned for entertainment for the evening. Presiding at the punch bowl will be Mmes. J. A. Ross and Joe Milleson.

On December 16, a group of the Vogues will visit the Cresta Loma Rest Home in Lemon Grove with individual Christmas gifts for each member of the home. Refreshments have been planned by Mrs. Leonard Wingo and Christmas carols will be sung to the members of the home by Mmes. M. M. Connolly, Thomas Duffner, James Grandfield, Ralph Nelson and Harold Wolfarth. This is an annual welfare project of the club.

Woman's Club Eyes Party At Club House This Friday

The Lemon Grove Woman's Club will hold its Christmas party at 1:30 p.m. this Friday at the clubhouse.

Christmas decorations will be shown by the garden section of the club. Christmas music will be played by Mrs. G. A. Turner.

Members have been asked to bring canned food and 10 cents to help a needy family during the holidays.

Hostesses for the party will be Mrs. Ann Barker, chairman, assisted by Mrs. W. A. Massey, Mrs. James Sharp and Miss Marie Massey.

The garden section will have a potluck luncheon on December 15 starting at noon at the clubhouse. On the 18th, the book section is to hold its Christmas party, starting at 1:30 p.m. at the clubhouse.

Lioness Club Enjoys Yule Party

The December meeting of the Spring Valley Lioness Club was convened at the usual meeting place, Singing Hills Country Club, the president, Mrs. Wendell Wilkinson, presiding. The tables were decorated attractively by the decorating committee, Mrs. Daniel Swing, Frederick Sherman, Ralph McJunkins, in the Christmas motif.

In lieu of a program, the program chairman, Mrs. Richard Hart, had an enjoyable Christmas party planned for the club, and the members exchanged gifts.

The ways and means chairman, Mrs. Bert Junker, discussed the November social, the Harvest pot luck dinner, given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Trauber, and submitted a statement of the proceeds collected from same. This is one of the club's yearly projects to raise funds to aid the needy.

Free Dance Set by Boosters

A special, free, public dance sponsored by the Mt. Miguel Boosters Club is to be held Saturday, December 19, Mrs. Marti Titmas, president of the club, said this week.

Called the Christmas Tree Ball, the dance is to start at 8 p.m. and run until midnight. Dress will be "casual."

Mrs. Titmas said that the music will be furnished from a recording industries trust fund in conjunction with Local 325 of the American Federation of Musicians.

Local Women on Committee For College Dames Tea

Two Lemon Grove housewives will be on the tea committee as the San Diego State College Faculty Dames hold their Christmas party this Friday at 2 p.m. in the Campus Laboratory School Auditorium.

They are Mrs. Bernard Kirby, 2152 Eldora, and Mrs. Andrew Olson, 3885 Capitol St.

Mrs. Paul Lingren with Mrs. Vincent Padgett as her accompanist will present a program of traditional carols and oratorials from different lands.

The tea decor will be modern in theme, with black, aqua, and silver the prominent colors. Nutbreads, cookies, and spiced tea make up the menu.

Mrs. Lingren, a resident of La Mesa, is a graduate of Westminster Choir College, Princeton, N. J. She is soprano soloist at the La Mesa Congregational Church. Mrs. Lingren has been soloist with Masterworks Chorale of Los Angeles; soloist at Los Angeles; and soloist with the Escondido Oratorial Society.

Mrs. Padgett received her master of arts degree in piano from member of an interacial chorus directed by Jester Hairston in the Ojai Festival; soloist and the American Conservatory in Chicago. She has taught at Kansas Wesleyan University, was a voice studio accompanist for Rubini, and has been a church organist.

Mrs. Carl Benton is tea committee chairman.

Mrs. Malcolm Love and three faculty members Mrs. Dorothy Harvey, Dr. Elizabeth Brown, and Mrs. Alvena Storm, will pour. The December Faculty Dames meeting traditionally honors the faculty as a whole. Mrs. Love will represent the administration; Mrs. Harvey, Dr. Brown, and Mrs. Storm will represent the faculty.

Airman Home From Iceland

Airman 2c George Patrick Felden, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Austin M. Felden of 1775 Ensenada St., Lemon Grove, is home on leave after having spent a year in Iceland.

A 1957 graduate of Mt. Miguel High School, he is scheduled to report back to duty at Stewart Air Force Base in New York on December 18.

GOLDEN OCCASION — Four generations gathered at Michael's Cafe Sunday to celebrate the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Constantino. They were married at Centerville, Iowa, on Dec. 6, 1909. Mr. and Mrs. Constantino are seated at the table, surrounded by grandchildren. Standing from left are Mr. and Mrs. Don Jacks, Don Constantino, Mrs. Gloria Kahnhorst, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Cortino and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stedry. Mrs. Kahnhorst is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacks. She is holding "the fourth generation."

Valley Residents Get Point Across To Supervisors

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—Indignant Spring Valley residents took four hours on Tuesday to get their views on sewer assessments in the Broadway area across to the County Board of Supervisors, but they stuck it out until they made their points clear. The hearing is to be resumed on Dec. 22.

A public hearing on assessments was called for 11 a.m., but supervisors went out to luncheon at 12:30 before holding the hearing. The board members came back a little after 1, and the hearing lasted until past 3 p.m.

The project, one of the largest in the Spring Valley Sanitation District, involves 901 assessments. The cost of the project was put at $668,622 by Warren Barney, public works department engineer. Pipe laid totals 66,000 feet, and the assessment was reported as $8.06 per "benefitted" foot of land.

Property owners protested the method of arriving at assessments and the cost of the project.

Barney said the work had first been proposed in 1952, but property owners could not expect the price to be the same now as then. He showed a chart to illustrate the sharp increases in such projects

Property owners also complained over work left undone by the contractor, so supervisors postponed the hearing for two weeks for a check on the work still to be done and the complaints on individual assessments.

ROAD REQUEST IS WITHDRAWN

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — The Spring Valley Local Fire District's request for opening of a new road to permit acquisition of a site for a fire house has been withdrawn, the County Board of Supervisors was told Tuesday. The proposed street, located in the Orville-St. George streets area, was disapproved by the County Planning Commission two weeks earlier.

'Panic Picking' of Avocadoes Seen As Opening for Government Control

A special committee of the San Diego County Farm Bureau warned this week that "panic picking" by avocado growers might "bring on another government regulation to control the volume and time at which avocados can be picked."

Paul Stiles, Fallbrook avocado grower and chairman of the avocado department of the county Farm Bureau, said that a special committee had determined that this year's prices were the lowest in history — and that the growers had caused the situation.

The committee's report blamed "panic picking" for the flood of avocados that hit the market early.

This year's production, the report said, has been estimated to be 40 per cent larger than last year's crop.This fact, according to the report, "had been overpublicized and over-emphasized" so that every grower was anxious to get his fruit off the trees before the price "dropped to nothing."

The special committee's report went on:

"The price started at 25 cents a pound to the grower, but each time he would bring in fruit or ask about the price he was told by the packer that in a few days the price would drop several cents. This caused the grower to pick all the fruit he could (even undersized, immature fruit) to get the best price before it dropped.

"Panic picking plus immature fruit caused the price to drop several cents. This was only the beginning. The pattern has been repeated — the saying is 'Tomorrow it will be less' — so the fruit pours into the packing houses. The price for avocados has dropped to four cents a pound to the grower, but the public has not shared in this low price.

"Delivery of fruit to the market has been 300% greater than last year, and is still increasing. The panic is on — 'Give away' prices do not stop the excessive picking of immature fruit but encourage it.

"The fact is that the 40% increase over last year's crop is all gone; there is not now too much fruit for the market. Those who keep their fruit until it matures will realize a good price for it when this panic picking is over. They will be rewarded for their sane thinking.

"A grower should estimate his crop and pick it in an orderly manner throughout the entire picking season. He should not be persuaded by the packing houses to pick all at one time because of a threatening price drop.

"Perhaps this panic picking will bring on another government regulation to control the volume and time avocados can be picked."

HOSPITAL APPROVED

SAN DIEGO (CNS)— A zone change to permit a medical center and hospital in the La Presa area was approved Tuesday by the County Board of Supervisors. Residential - professional zoning for a square block in La Presa had previously been voted by the County Planning Commission, but the supervisors' approval was needed to make the zoning effective.

The Skunk and Wolf patrols of Spring Valley Boy Scout Troop 47 had an overnight campout at Agua Caliente last weekend. The boys visited the Vallecitas stage station and there they raised the flag. They took a ten mile hike and saw Mountain Palm Springs. Although it was warm enough during the day for swimming, they reported that by 8 p.m. the temperature had dropped to 33 degrees.

The Scouts "good turn" for the day was helping to dig out a car that had been stuck in the sand.

Adults in charge of the campout were Lewis Muzzy, Howard Skinner and Louis Loveland. Boys of the Skunk patrol were James Lindeneau, Wayne Muzzy, Larry Codley, Mike Hale, Larry Jones and Butch Takahashi. Those of the Wolf patrol were John Skinner, Tim Loveland, Bruce Masse, Denzil Rexroad and Tommy Danner. Eddie Rauscher of the tExplorers also went along.

Square Dance News . . .

The next dance for Frontier Squares will be Saturday, Dec. 12. This dance will be preceded at 7:30 p.m. by voting on club by-law changes as well as for election of new officers.

Dancing will start at 8 p.m. sharp with "Wild Bill" Keller instructing dancers through 30 minutes of intriguing "workshop" figures, followed at 8:30 with regular square dancing until 11 p.m.

The last dance for this year by Frontier Squares will be held Saturday, Dec. 26. Bill Keller will call a hot, Pre-New Year's hoe-down!

The Junior Levis and Laces are holding their Christmas Dance December 17 at Lemon Grove Women's Club House. The pre-teen group will dance from 5:30 to 7 p.m. and the teen-age group will dance from 7:30 to 9 p.m.

There will be refreshments at both parties. Our caller, Juan Frank, will have some surprise guest callers on the program.

Santa Claus will also be there.

There will be a gift exchange at both dances.

—o—

The "Christmas Time" party night at Levis and Laces was a gay afair Saturday night when the Lariats joined us in force wearing their Santa caps. They also brought along some of their own callers to assist Clarence Montgomery for an evening of good dancing.

There are still a few tickets available for our New Year's Party when we will usher in the New Year with lots of fun and a buffet dinner. A new class for beginners will start early in January, and anyone interested may call HI 4-7832 for further information.

Santa To Have Easier Trip Down Chimney

Santa's job will be a lot easier at the Moses J. Martin home on Carancho Street in Lemon Grove this year.

For several years, the red-robed gent has had to enter the home through a false, cardboard chimney. But this year he will come down a gigantic, aged-brick fireplace in a new family room at the Martin home.

Santa discovered this fact this week when he received letters from 5-year-old Mary Ann Martin and her 7-year-old brother, Jimmy.

Both children wrote to Santa, asserting that they have been good children during the past year, have minded their parents, eat all their food and drink all their milk. Mary Ann asked for a "doll that cries real tears and dishes," and Jimmy asked for a "pop-gun and teter ball."

And they asked that Santa bring the presents "through the chimney that Daddy built."

Santa sent a courier to the Martin home to inspect the chimney and reported later that it is "more than adequate" for delivering presents.

Santa received some other letters this week from local youngsters.

One little boy, Paul Don Phelps, told Santa that he has been "a good little boy most of the time," and ended by promising, "I'll be a good boy tell nex't xmas I love you." He asked for such toys as an airplane, farm set "punching bock", a toy rifle and a "power shobel." And he said that "if you can't bring all of then, tell Mr's Santo to bring what he can."

A little girl asked Santa for a train case and a watch.

"The reason I would like a train case," she wrote, "is when I go to sleep with my grandmother and my friends. And the reason I would like a watch is because I can not find the watch that I got for my birthday."

The letter was signed "Cindy Lou Wilhelmi."

Santa received some rather strange letters too. One consisted of a whole series of 18 tuberculosis Christmas seals dated 1957 and two package sticker pictures of Santa Claus. At the bottom was a note: "Love to Santa Claus. I know how I would feel if I was you. Cindy."

And one letter, with no signature, but with the name "Peter" on the envelope, consisted of a note which read:

"no spell no spell no spell no spell no spell."

Oh yes—the Christmas seal letter was marked:

"Postage Due 4 Cents."

Mother Gets Letter From Daughter After Plane Crash

Mrs. John Gabriel, 7465 Central, Lemon Grove, received a letter from her daughter in Chicago the other day.

But it came in a special envelope from the Post Office Department.

And it was burned and water soaked to such an extent that she couldn't read it—and she couldn't tell anything about the pictures which were enclosed.

A note from the Post Office Department explained that the letter had been in an airplane which had crashed and burned near Chicago on Thanksgiving Day.

Mrs. Gabriel's daughter sent another letter, and other pictures, this week.

What's Doing In the PTA?

The annual Christmas Pageant will be presented on two evenings for the San Miguel PTA. Kindergarten, first, second, and third grade parents were invited to attend on Wednesday, Dec. 9. The fourth, fifth and sixth grade parents will attend December 10. The theme of the pageant this year is "Living Christmas Cards" directed by Mrs. Agnes Rodgers. Music will be provided by the fifth and sixth grade chorus directed by Mr. Richard Lawrence. Sixth grade room mothers will be hostesses at both meetings.

—o—

The Palm Avenue PTA will hold its Christmas program at the school cafetorium at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, according to Mrs. John Penery, program chairman. The stage is to be decorated to represent Christmas carols of foreign lands.

The entire student body and faculty will participate in singing carols, some in foreign languages.

The program will follow a regular meeting. Mrs. Mason's Room 2 will play host for the program.

—o—

The Bancroft PTA will hold the December meeting in the cafetorium of Mt. Miguel High School on December 10 at 7:30 p.m. The Chorus of the Bancroft School, with Mr. MacGilvey conducting, will entertain at this meeting. Mrs. Bayshore will accompany them at the piano. The Theme of this month's meeting will be Noel, which the chorus will help bring out.

This meeting had previously been announced for the 17th. No arrangements for baby sitting have been made for this meeting. Bancroft School has collected over 1,000 pounds of foodstuffs for the welfare collection this year. The Room Count prize has been retained by Mrs. Smith's second grade at last month's meeting. The prize is an aquarium.

—o—

"Visitors from outer space" are scheduled to visit San Altos School Tuseday at 7:30 p.m. when the annual Christmas Pageant is presented in the school auditorium for parents and friends.

These guests are on a special mission in an attempt to answer the question, "What is Christmas?" A cast of children selected from each classroom will participate. Scenes will range from the holiday atmosphere in the home, to Old Santa Claus in person, who then pulls us far, far, back in time to the year 1 B.C. where the true story of Christmas is re-enacted.

Traditional Christmas Carols will be sung by the 90-voice San Altos Chorus under the direction of Miss Dolores Lorona and Mrs. Betty Higgins. Undergirding the activity up-stage, Mr. Bob Harvey will be managing the stage, lights and properties.

All teachers are cooperating in designing sets, script writing, prop construction, and other activities.

Accident Prevention is Problem For Everyone, Teenage Drivers Told

"It is the responsibility of everyone to help prevent accidents on our streets and highways. But most important to this Seventh Annual San Diego County Teenage Traffic Safety Conference is the responsibility we have as young drivers and as representatives of our schools to give thoughtful suggestions that will make our communities safer places in which to live.

"As leaders of the senior high schools in San Diego County, we are assembled here today for serious consideration of the problems which face young drivers. Through our combined efforts, let us try to find ways to improve the safety of our fellow students."

This was the welcome given to students of San Diego County's high schools who attended the Seventh Annual Traffic Safety Conference on December 2 in the Conference Building in Balboa Park.

The conference began at 1:30 p.m. with registration, after which a general assembly was held. Features of the assembly were welcomes by a representative of Mayor Charles Dail of San Diego; De Graff Austin, County Supervisor; Lee Bloomenshine, Assistant Superintendent, San Diego City Schools; Ralph Kellogg, Coordinator, Department of Education, San Diego County; Rev. William A. Kraft, Diocese of San Diego; and Sam Hartman, President, San Diego Traffic Safety Council.

At 2:30 p.m., the students divided themselves into 10 workshops, with subjects for discussion such as "The Role of the Student Council in Traffic Safety" and "Driver Education and Behind-the-Wheel Training—Frill or Lifesaver?" which were conducted by the students and were advised by adults qualified to assist in the problem before the group for discussion.

The group of students again assembled at 5 p.m. for the reports of the workshop chairmen, and then for dinner. Dr. William Rust, President, California Western University, was featured speaker at the dinner.

Students from Mount Miguel High School who attended the conference were Judy Nicodemus, Orville Hay, Barbara Ralston, Judy Cowan, Beverly Slocum, Shannon Angus, Ray Whitman, Doug Newcomb, Tom Epperson, Clint Spooner, and Rod Hitchcock. Teacher-sponsors from Mt. Miguel were Hay Hirsch, Ray Murphy and Dick McMinn.

Different And Beautiful

The fragile bubbles of glass with which we adorn our Christmas trees are largely a family industry in Europe, especially Germany, and also in Japan.

In the tiny villages that cling to the steep mountainsides, whole families engage in the process of turning out Christmas decorations.

Special shapes and designs are the exclusive properties of certain families, the patterns handed down from father to son, for centuries unchanged.

Using a flame, the father carefully blows the thin glass tubing to the desired shape with the aid of an iron mold. His son removes the hot ornament to the cooling table. Next the mother silvers the inside and the daughters apply painted designs.

Mt. Miguel trumpet trio: Warren Carnie, Allen Foye and Gary Wigdahl

Award-Winning Band Sets Pop Concert

Mt. Miguel High School's award-winning band, along with the school orchestra, choir and girl's ensemble, will present a "pops" concert on December 17.

The concert will follow by five days the appearance of the band at the halftime show in the nationally - televised Los Angeles Rams football game this Saturday afternoon.

According to school officials, the December 17 performance by the band will include "Canzona" by Peter Mennen; "Tenderly" by Lawrence; "Bugler's Holiday" by Anderson, played by a trumpet trio accompanied by the band; and Part II of "La Fiesta Mexicana" by H. Owen Reed.

The orchestra will play "Allemande" by William Brode; "Concerto Grosso" by Corelli; and the "Emperor Waltz" by Strauss.

The choir will sing "Beautiful Savior" by Christiansen, with a with a solo by Pat O'Gara; "O solo by Judy Koopmans; "Free at Last" by Pfantsch; "When the Saints Go Marching In" by Schumann; "God is With Us" by Kastalsky, mann; "Dark Water" by James; Cast Me Not Away From Thy Countenance"; and a medley of Christmas Carols.

The girls' ensemble will begin its part of the program with Friml's "Love is Like a Firefly", followed by "Lullaby of Broadway" by Warren; "Where'er My Tears are Falling" by Schumann; and "Nelly Bly" by Stephen Foster.

Teacher Recruiter Makes Two-Week Trip Through State

Fred Tidwell, director of personnel of the Grossmont Union High School District, has just returned from a two-week teacher recruiting trip which took him as far north as San Francisco. He interviewed twenty prospective teachers at USC, Los Angeles State, Long Beach State, Occidental, UCLA, Stanford, University of San Francisco, San Francisco State, and the University of California at Berkely.

Meeting with the heads of education departments at these schools, Dr. Tidwell set up machinery to assist the Grossmont district to continue to employ high quality teachers and also arranged his spring recruiting schedules. "Education department heads of the colleges report a superior group of students ready to enter the teaching field next September," Dr. Tidwell reported.

Dr. Tidwell also visited placement bureaus at both the Los Angeles and Burlingham offices of the CTA and held a conference at Claremont Graduate School. The education department of the Claremont School and other colleges and the Grossmont district are to explore the intern program, and further sessions in the near future were arranged by Dr. Tidwell on this trip.

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO VACATE AND ABANDON LOT A, MT. HELIX GATEWAY UNIT NO 1, CASA DE ORO

PUBLIC NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Board of Supervisors adopted a resolution on November 24, 1959 declaring its intention to vacate and abandon the following described County highway:

All of Lot A in Mt. Helix Gateway Unit No. 1, according to Map thereof No. 2542, filed in the office of the County Recorder of San Diego County.

The Board has fixed Tuesday, December 29, 1959, at 11:00 a.m., and the chamber of said Board, Room 310 San Diego City and County Administration Building, Civic Center, San Diego, California, as the time and place for hearing on said resolution of intention to vacate and abandon said highway.

YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED to appear at the time and place fixed for said hearing and show cause, if any you have, why said highway should not be vacated and abandoned.

For further details reference is hereby made to said resolution of intention on file in the office of the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, Room 306 San Diego City and County Administration Building, Civic Center, San Diego, California.

BY ORDER OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS of the County of San Diego, State of California, adopted November 24, 1959.

R. B. JAMES, County Clerk and ex officio Clerk of the Board of Supervisors
By Sara Drew, Deputy

SV Bul. Dec 10, 17

You don't do much in your garden around Christmas but you may welcome a suggestion as to a little remembrance for someone for whom you can't find just the right sort of gift.

After all, we are celebrating the most sacred occasion when we celebrate Christmas, and I don't know of any gift more suitable than a beautiful plant. But also, there are friends who are ardent gardeners and they always welcome a new garden tool; or, perhaps better still, you can settle for a bottle of spray material that they can use in January. A combination of lime-sulphur and oil complete in one bottle is something that every good gardener will be using right after the new year.

Cinerarias from flats, now available at most nurseries, make wonderful potted plants and these are not very expensive. . . Such a remembrance is a little more than a Christmas card but not quite in the category of a gift.

'Pat' Cole Joins Brown's Firm

Phyllis "Pat" Cole, a real estate saleswoman, has joined the Lemon Grove office of Jim Brown and Associates, 7968 Broadway.

She was formerly with the Jim Pearce real estate office.

Mrs. Cole, who lives at 1527 Donita Street, El Cajon, has sold several pieces of Lemon Grove business property during the past several months while associated with Pearce.

At Brown's, she will be associated with Jerry Howell and Gladys Storey. Mrs. Storey is manager of the office.

Thespians Form Troup For Civil Defense

A volunteer group of thespians, calling themselves The Troupers, was recently organized for dramatic presentations of Civil Defense plays. Vern Baer of 4148 Cortez Way, Spring Valley, was elected president, with Virginia Kulhavy of Lakeside as secretary.

Dick Stout of Eucalyptus Hills was selected as chairman of the coordinating committee with Tom Barkdull, Sr., and Gloria Ellsworth of Lakeside and Roland Haworth of Lemon Grove as members. Vic Shepherd of San Diego was appointed chairman of transportation with Evelyn Barkdull and Jack Lynch of Lakeside as members. Walter Chandler of La Mesa was appointed chairman of the constitution committee.

Other members are Barbara Arbuckle of Lemon Grove, Imel Gibson of Brookside, and Bea La France of Alpine.

To date the Troupers have presented plays at the Souther Calif. Exposition, Roosevelt Junior High School in San Diego Lakeside Elementary School, and Garfield Elementary School in San Diego.

Dick Stout is to start directing a new play about the first of the year. Anyone interested in plays: writers, directors, actors or stage hands, canget full details on the Trouper's by calling the Civil Defense office, Gillespie Field, HI 4-3151.

Two Matadors Named To All-League Team

Dick Schwab and Eric Lindsten, two of Mt. Miguel's top football players for the 1959 season, have been selected to the All Metro League squad. Schwab was chosen as an offensive end, and Lindsten as a defensive back. John McQuaide received honorabe mention. McQuaide is a junior guard.

Accessory Gift Lines Are Varied

Men's accessories are so exciting this year, they are bound to make great gifts.

Belts, for one thing, are really different—now combining leather with print fabric, or more than two kinds of leathers.

Hats this season feature very narrow brims in most all of the favorite crown styles, and fabrics and colors are richer than ever!

Billfolds, too, offer a lot of variety — beyond the regular styles which are even more luxurious.

Then there are the new bill holders. These are offered in leathers and in the Ivy print fabrics. To go with them there are leather or cloth card cases with accordion clear plastic holders.

With the onslaught of credit organizations, most men today need these extra large card holders.

Ties are still the narrow models of the past, but there are a host of new patterns. Large diagonals that make plaid patterns will be good in bold or subdued hues.

It is not as difficult to select the right tie as the jokes lead us to believe! Tell the salesman whether your man is more conservative or rather gregarious . . whether he prefers blue, brown, grey or some of the newer Ivy colors. He will then be able to show you the ties that are sure to please.

METHODIST CLUB

The Methodist Men's club of the Foothills Methodist Church, Campo Rd. and Cordoba St., Spring Valley will have its monthly meeting Thursday at 8 p.m. Guest speaker will be Lester Wahrenbrock, district lay leader. Pie and cofee will be served following the meeting. President Dr. Russell Love invites all men in the area to attend.

Junior High Students Named to Honor Roll

Nine long weeks of school work paid off last week at Lemon Grove Junior High School when report cards spotlighted the honor students in seventh and eighth grades.

To qualify for the "A" honor roll, students are required to have all "A's" in scholastic subjects, according to Robert Sutton, principal. "B" honor roll students have "B" averages in scholastic grades.

The top citizenship group, the Golds, represent those pupils receiving all "A" grades in citizenship which includes responsibility, dependability, courtesy, and general deportment. Those in the Green Citizenship Club maintained a "B" average in citizenship with no grades lower than a "C." The junior high has approximatly 850 students.

In the eighth grade, James Arsenault, Clara Folk, Jil Simms, and Donna McClean took honors in both top groups. In the seventh grade Darrel Cohen, Richard Combs, and Michael Webb won places on both honor lists.

The girls said that this is the philanthropic project of Betty Clevenger, their honored queen.

Raincoat Can Be 'Present Perfect' for Men

Show you do care about whether or not he stays warm and dry this winter . . . give your favorite man one of the season's handsome new raincoats.

Many of the styles feature pile linings and collars . . . more on the line of storm coats. There are both the fingertip and full-length models. There is even a rather large choice of colors. . . green, black, blue, tan, brown.

Best of all, these raincoats make good-looking overcoats as well.

JUNIORS TO PARTY

The Christmas party for the Lemon Grove Women's Club, Juniors will be held at the home of Mrs. Ralph Kraft on Tuesday December 15 at 8 p.m. The women will exchange gifts by a Chinese Auction and the Balladeers willoffer some Christmas cheer by singing many of the favorite songs.

Cakes made by the members will be taken to the Armed Services YMCA on December 10 by Mrs. Arthur Brown, Mrs. Edward Munton, and Mrs. Warren Petersen, who will serve them to the fellows that evening.

Mt. Miguel's Bob Roberson (22) reaches for basket while Clairemont's Joe Michael (52), and Spike Collins (50) try to stop him. Matadors won game 43-41 in action last week in the Mt. Miguel Gym.

Matadors Win Two, Drop One Cage Tilt

By Bill Ott Jr.

Mt. Miguel High Slhool's basketball team picked up 2 victories out of 3 games last week. The Matadors stopped San Dieguito 65-49, and Clairemont 43-41, but lost their third game to Crawford 45-33.

Wayne Stephens was in good form for the Matadors Tuesday night, hitting the scoring column for 20 points, followed by Lloyd Hawkins with 16 points against the Mustangs from San Dieguito.

Bob Roberson paced the Matadors Friday night by scoring 13 points for the Matadors against Clairemont. Bob Engberg hit 10 points while at the center spot for the Matadors. Jim Godfrey was the high scorer for the Clairemont five putting 11 points through the net.

Crawford led by Gary Maloy who scored 16 points and Dave Flesner who hit for 10 points, dropped the Matadors 45-33 Saturday night in the Miguel gym. Lloyd Hawkins and Bob Engberg paced the Matadors with 8 and 7 points respectively.

Miguel lost the services of Stephens after Tuesday night's game. Stephens played in the game with a high temperature and was unable to play in the latter two games because of illness.

Marines Trounce Air Force Team In Bowl Game

San Diego's Marine Recruit Depot came to life in the fourth quarter and smashed Bolling Air Force Base of Washington, D.C., 41-14 in the second annual Leatherneck Bowl held in Balboa Stadium Sunday afternoon.

A crowd of 19,000 fans watched MCRD wipe out a 21-14 third quarter lead and score 20 points in the final period of play to win their second bowl game in 2 years. The Devildogs rolled over the Generals in the same fashion as their 66-22 rout over Camp Lejeune in last year's bowl game.

Halfbacks Al Hall and Billy Martin paced the victory for the Devildogs. Hall scored three on runs of 2, 34, and 9 yards respectively. Martin scored twice, once on a 2 yard run and the second on a 53 yard pass from quarterback Vern Valdez.

The Devildogs finished up the season undefeated and recorded their sixteenth straight victory over the last 2 seasons. This is the first perfect season the Marines have had since 1950.

MANY LIVES

Trees vary widely in life spans, from 20 years for the acacias to as much as 4,000 years for the sequoia. Under modern forest management, called tree farming, man harvests trees when they are mature to make way for a new crop.

Metro League Basketball Season Goes Into Action

The Metro League Basketball season swings into action Friday night at the local high schools. Helix is the pre-season choice to capture the crown from the Chula Vista Spartans, defending champions from last year.

The Highlanders travel to Sweetwater to play the Red Devils, a team that was hit hard by graduation last year. El Cajon, with some veterans on their team, will journey to the Chula Vista Recreation Center to play the Spartans of Chula Vista, who will also field some returning lettermen.

Escondido, with Steve Thurlow setting the pace, will invade the Mt. Miguel Gym to face the Matadors, who have a few returniny lettermen, and some boys up from last years successful junior varsity.

Grossmont will visit Hilltop at Hilltop down at the new school's gym, and El Capitan, another new school in the league, drew a bye and will play San Dieguito of the Avocado League at San Dieguito. Game time for all games is slated for 8:30 p.m. with the jay vees beginning at 7 p.m.

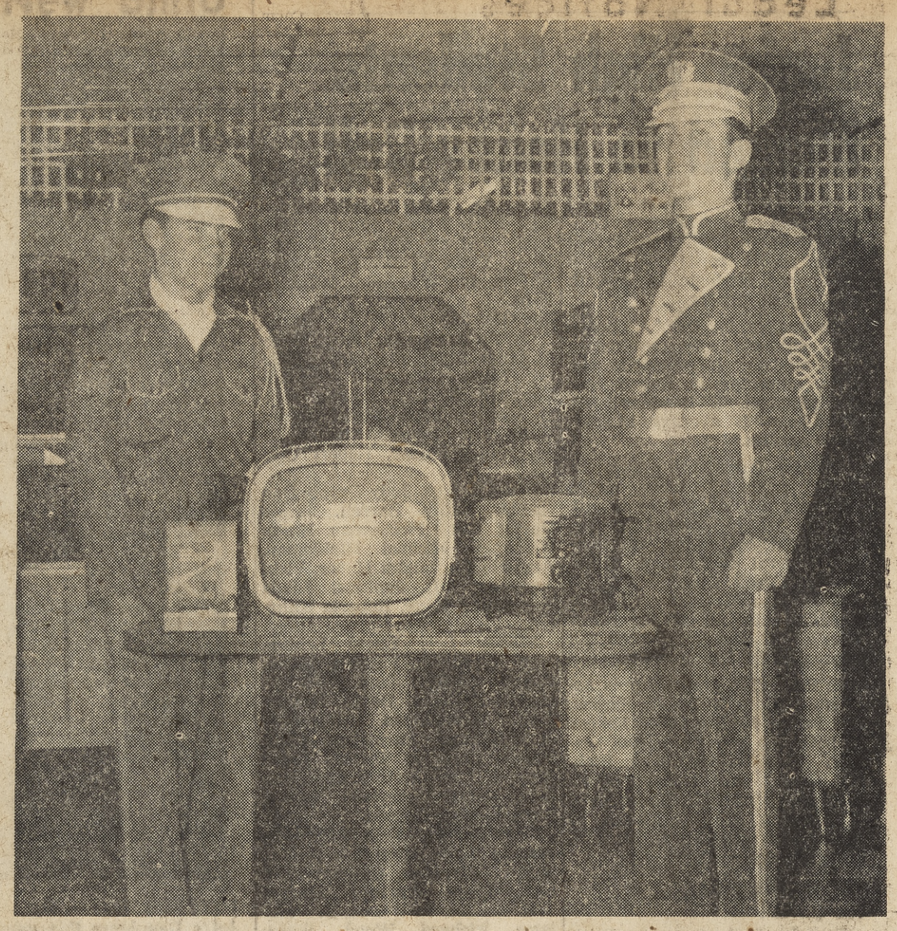
Wrestling Squad Floors Hoover

Coach Ben Duea's wrestling squad scored a 40 7 victory over Hoover High last Thursday afternoon in the Miguel quad.

The Matadors have won the Metro title in the past 2 years and will be putting the title on the line in this year's well-balanced league.

Yuma, Ariz., will wrestle the Matadors in the Mt. Miguel Gym Saturday night with the Jay Vees starting at 6:30 p.m. and the varsity matches following immediately afterward.

New Uniform for the Band



The new uniform of the Lemon Grove School Band is modeled here by Randy Barry of the 8-5 class. Randy (right) wears the colorful green suit brightened by gold trim and white braid. One hundred new uniforms like it represent the goal of the Band Uniform Committee. Jim Grandfield, also of the 8-5 class, models the old uniform which has been used by the band for several years.

Also pictured are the prizes to be awarded by the Music Parents Club at a drawing in the Lemon Grove Plaza this Friday evening at 7:30. The portable television set, transistor radio and deep fryer go to lucky winners that night as part of a community fund-raising project for the 100 uniforms. Entertainment at the public drawing features the school pep band under the direction of Harry Weisgerber and the chorus directed by George Starkey.

Bright Nickel Plating

Bright nickel plating processes, which eliminate costy buffing and polishing became commercially availabe in 1937.

Corrosion-Resistant Nickel Alloys

A larg percentage of the nickel alloys in current use find applications in industry because of their resistance to various form of corrosion.

First Stainless Railroad Car

The first railway car made of nickel stainless steel was built in the United States in 1933.

What is the camparative price of this machine? Actually, this is a special Anniversary model which in our opinon is of the same value as model 403, prided at $1.49, which has been sold in this area during 1959.

We scooped up 250 of these machines because the manufacturer is making a special sales effort in connection with his 90th Anniversary. Also as a new line in our store he wanted to give us an exciting opening value. This special model has the same mechanical features as the well-known model 403—only there are a few improvements and a newly styled case. We think it's a really remarkable value . . . just in time for Christmas.

SEAFOOD SALE!

Featuring 12 New Mary Morgan Seafood Recipes

MARY MORGAN
Food Basket's
Home Economist, says:

"To make seafood interesting and unusual we suggest trying one or more of the ideas in our new Seafood Booklet, which includes Stuffed Sea Bass Steaks, with zesty Oyster Stuffing, or Sea Bass "Roast"—a complete meal-in-one-dish, with all the accompanying vegetables; Almond coated Mahi-Mahi with sweet and sour sauce, gently sauteed in brown butter; San Francisco Cioppino, a delicate Seafood Bouillabaisse, laced with Sherry or Red Wine; Snake River Trout stuffed with seasoned Crab meat, pan fried and then oven-browned; delectable Shrimp Jambalaya, Croele cooking at its Louisiana best; Seafood Gumbo, another Gulf Coast specialty, a chowder-like soup with crab, oysters and shrimp, redolent with seasoning and gumbo file; world-famous Oysters Rockefeller with Lemon and egg garnish; Halibut in sour cream, heady with sweet basil and brown onion rings.

"Cheese-baked Lobster Ramekins, with mushrooms, green pepper and buttered crumbs; Chesapeake Bay Crab Cakes, subtly seasoned with English mustard and cayenne; Yankee Clam Chowder made with rich milk and butter, and traditionally thickened with cracker crumbs . . . make use of one or all for sumptuous, interesting seafood meals!"
